WILL BE LANDED ON BULGARIAN COAST

Russians Will Press in From Black Sea, According to Russian General

ENEMY DRIVEN BACK AT POINTS BY SERBIANS

Allies' Sea-Planes Bombarded Railway Between Dedea-
gatch and Adrianople

London, Oct. 23.—Romanian newspapers, as quoted in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Zurich, say that the General Visnolko, of the Russian army, asserted:
"In a fortnight, at the latest, Russian troops will land on the Bulgarian coast."

London, Oct. 23.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent says:
"I have the best authority for saying that British forces have entered Serbia."

In Greece.
London, Oct. 23.—The Dostova bridge, on the Nish-Salonica railway, between Salonica and the Serbian frontier, has been destroyed, according to advices received here to-day from Salonica. Details were lacking.

Forced Back.
Athens, Oct. 22.—The Serbians are said to have assumed the offensive and at certain points to have forced back the Teutonic invaders.

The Serbian minister states that the Serbians repulsed the Bulgarians who entered Vranja. French and British military attaches arriving from Nish
also say that Vranja was not occupied.
They declare the Serbians have entered Bulgaria.

Bucharest, Oct. 23.—It is reported here that the seat of the Serbian government has been transferred from Nish to Kraljevo, about 65 miles northwest of Nish.

With Serbians.
Nish, Oct. 23.—French troops are fighting with the Serbians against the Bulgarians in Southeastern Serbia, according to official announcements here to-day. The announcement admitted, however, that Velez had been captured by the Bulgarians and also that the enemy had occupied Racha on Wednesday.

Railway Bombarded.
Athens, Oct. 23.—Sea planes from the allied fleets bombarded the Turco-Bulgarian railway between Dedeagatch and Adrianople on Friday. Several bombs were dropped in the outskirts of Adrianople.

This is the first attack on Bulgaria launched from the air. The railway recently was turned over to Bulgaria
by Turkey and furnishes the only railroad communication with Dedeagatch.

Before Declaration.
Nish, Serbia, Oct. 20.—via Paris—(Delayed in transmission)—The following official statement was given out here to-day:

"The Bulgarians commenced hostil-ties without a previous declaration of war. On October 11 they attacked our positions, penetrating a kilometre into our territory. On the 12th they attacked and were repulsed.

"On the 13th, at 1 o'clock in the morning, attacks supported by artillery were pronounced along the whole frontier. The attacks continued on the 14th, and in the direction of Kadi-Bozha the Bulgarians penetrated four kilometres into our territory.

"The Bulgarian government declared war only after having succeeded in occupying by surprise the following points along the frontier: Enagevatz, Krva, Planica, Goleche, Orilav,

SILVER BULLET WILL WIN, STATES THOMAS

Government of Germany Cannot Afford to Continue War for Long

Toronto, Oct. 23.—D. A. Thomas, the "fish and king" representative in Canada and the United States of the British minister of munitions, when asked in an interview at Ottawa by a correspondent of the Monetary Times whether he thought the war would continue for several years, yet, said he did not think so.

"Nothing like it," he added. "The government, and particularly the government of Germany, cannot afford it.
The Balkan situation presents a setback, but it is not insurmountable."
Mr. Thomas is optimistic as to the outcome of the struggle, and is confident that the "silver bullet will win."

AS THOUGH CAMPAIGN WERE WON ALREADY

German Correspondent Seems to Think No Help Can Come to Serbia

Amsterdam, Oct. 23.—The Cologne
Gazette prints the following dispatch from its correspondent in Serbia:

"German army press headquarters in Serbia, October 21.

"Owing to the success of the allied Teutonic armies, the future trend of the developments in the Serbian seat of war is no longer dependent on any powers.

"In the north, the Austro-Hungarian-German armies under command of Field-Marshal von Mackensen, after heavy fighting and breaking through what were supposed to be impenetrable defences to the south of the river, have secured two strong positions which they stormed with irresistible force.

"Through this sudden extension of occupied territory the allied armies already have advanced inland far from the frontier, where, owing to the geographical nature of the country, communication between the different parts of the front is assured. Every gain of ground made by Austro-Hungarian-German armies now endangers adjacent parts of the enemy's lines, which must become untenable.

"As the Bulgarian army, which is superior both numerically and in military capacity, is cutting into the heart of the Serbian field of operations and soon will cause a suspension of Serbian railway traffic, it may safely be assumed that any successful intervention in favor of Serbia has been made impossible."

LANDED A FORCE ON COAST OF COURLAND

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The official report today dealing with operations on the eastern front says:
"On the coast of Courland, Russian warships bombarded Petropavlovsk, Commesnes and Gipsin, and landed a small force at Commesnes.

"The forces under Field-Marshal von Hindenburg have repulsed the Russians south of Sadowi.

"General von Linsingen's forces have occupied Kollit, taking 600 prisoners.
"The forces under Prince Leopold have repulsed attacks in the vicinity of the Oginski canal."

The King's Call to Men of the Empire

London, Oct. 23.—The following appeal by King George has been made public by the official Press Bureau:

"To My People:
"At this grave moment in the struggle between my people and a highly organized enemy who has transgressed the laws of nations and changed the ordinance that binds civilized Europe together, I appeal to you.

"I rejoice in my Empire's effort and I feel pride in my subjects all over the world, who have sacrificed home and fortune and life itself in order that another may not inherit the free empire which their ancestors and mine have built. I ask you to make good these sacrifices.

"The end is not in sight. More men and yet more are wanted to keep my armies in the field, and through them to secure victory and an enduring peace. In ancient days the darkest moment has ever produced in men of our race the strongest resolve. I ask you, men of all classes, to come forward voluntarily and take your share in these fights.

"In freely responding to my appeal you will be giving your support to our Brothers who have long since upheld Great Britain's past traditions and the glory of her arms."

TURKS MADE ATTACKS AND WERE REPULSED

Paris, Oct. 23.—The allied troops on Wednesday repulsed strong Turkish attacks in the Syria and Kithria regions, on the Gallipoli Peninsula, according to a dispatch from Mitylene.
The Turks are said to have lost heavy-
ly. An artillery action continues.

Two destroyers entered the straits
and bombarded Tzaca Tepe.

TWELVE CARDINALS.

Rome, Oct. 23.—Pope Benedict will give red hats to 12 prelates at the November consistory, according to reports widely circulated here to-day. Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul, Minn., is mentioned prominently as one of the twelve prelates to be named cardinals.
Among those to be elevated are: one German, one French and five more Italians.

HAS INTENSIFIED FEELING OF HORROR

First German Version Says
Murder of Nurse Was Necessary as "Example"

London, Oct. 23.—The first of the German versions of the execution of Miss Edith Cavell, termed it necessary as an "example," reached London to-day, and has only intensified the mingled resentment and horror, with which the British view the deed.

Special services in memory of Miss Cavell will be held in most of the churches to-morrow.

In the meantime talk of reprisals is heard on every hand. "Form a Cavell regiment" is one of the cries which may assume definite form. Certain it is that the people as a whole have never been so aroused. Even the Zeppelins, dealing death and destruction to a non-combatant population, have not worked them to such a pitch
of righteous indignation.

OF GREAT USE TO THE GERMANS, SAYS AIRMAN

Berne, Oct. 23.—A Swiss airman here declares that the questions and answers in the British parliament about the measures taken to foil the Zeppelin raids are very useful to the Germans because they give the exact information about lists and other details, the knowledge of which is of the utmost importance to the enemy. This is especially true because the Zeppelin pilots are men who for long periods resided in London.

THEY WILL CHANGE THEIR IDEAS SHORTLY

Amsterdam, Oct. 23.—The Constanztine correspondent of the Nieuwe
Van Danzig, telegraphing from Sofia, says it can be regarded as certain that the entente powers' undertaking at the Dardanelles has failed. It is said that in the Seddul Bahr region the allied troops are retreating bit by bit, because the sea is so rough the warships cannot transport either supplies or reserves. Constantinople is looking forward eagerly to direct communication with middle Europe.

ATTEMPT ON RIGA HAS BEEN CHECKED

Advices From Petrograd Indicate Von Hindenburg
Has Failed Again

THE BOMBARDMENT OF BULGARIA'S AEGEAN COAST

Probably Will Draw Considerable Body of Bulgarians
From Serbian Front

London, Oct. 23.—The latest official advices from Petrograd give some indication that Field-Marshal von Hindenburg's drive toward the Baltic port of Riga has been checked again and that nearer the centre of the German line German counter-attacks have been repulsed. The fighting on the left bank of the Styx continues and the Russians have made further captures of large numbers of men. In the Caucasus lively actions, in which cavalry is taking an important part, are reported.

Vienna acknowledges that the Austrian troops have retired in Galicia under the pressure of superior Russian forces.

The status of political affairs in the Balkans is almost equal in interest to the military situation. The belief is growing here that neither Greece nor Roumania is likely to enter the war,
at least unless the Entente nations gain some decisive success. Greece apparently regards this as more important than the offer of the island of Cyprus, and it is feared in Athens that the allied troops have come too late into the Balkan field.

The bombardment of the Bulgarian coast on the Aegean by an allied fleet raises hopes here that the Entente powers will not be content with landing troops in Salonica, but may cause enough of a diversion elsewhere to engage a considerable body of Bulgarian troops. It is expected here that the arrival at the Dardanelles of Major-General Sir Charles Monro, the new commander of the expeditionary forces, will be accompanied with new military activity on the Gallipoli Peninsula.

FROM SWITZERLAND TO THE ADRIATIC

Italian General Staff Believes
Proper Moment to Strike
Has Come

Udine, Oct. 23.—The Italian army is making a general attack along the whole line from Switzerland to the Adriatic. In the preceding five months of the Austro-Italian war the efforts of the Italians have been directed at the penetration of Austrian territory and the capture of strategic points for the purpose of securing Italy against the possibility of Austrian invasion. In the opinion of the Italian general staff this has been accomplished and the war is entering now into its second phase.

It is estimated that the Italians have taken 25,000 prisoners during the war and have put out of action upwards of 100,000 men in all. The Italian losses, including killed, wounded and prisoners, amount to about 45,000, according to official figures, which is the lowest percentage of any of the belligerents.

GERMANS HAVE CLOSED THE FRONTIER AGAIN

Geneva, Oct. 23.—Germany again is closed from Basel to Lake Constance to travelers. No steamers are allowed to approach the landings on the German shore of Lake Constance. It is assumed that the closing of the frontier is to keep intelligence of the movements of German troops from escaping.

IRON CROSS FOR FERDINAND.

London, Oct. 23.—The Kaiser has conferred the decoration of the Iron Cross of the first and second classes on King Ferdinand of Bulgaria, according to a dispatch printed by the Amsterdam Telegraph and forwarded by the correspondent of Reuter's Telegraph company.

HEAD OF ITALY'S FLEET; DUKE OF ABRUZZI

It was reported a few days ago that Admiral the Duke of Abruzzi had attended a conference at the headquarters of General Cadorna, chief of the Italian general staff, and it is thought the plans for the co-operation of an Italian squadron with the allied fleets in the bombardment of the Bulgarian coast on the Aegean sea were perfected then.

NOTHING BUT FORCE WILL AVAIL, HE SAYS

No Hope Greece Will Co-operate Spontaneously With the Allies

TROOPS BEING MOVED, STATES DR. E. J. DILLON

London, Oct. 23.—Dr. E. J. Dillon wires from Rome:
M. Zalmis contends that Greece, being an independent state, possesses the right to adopt a policy of armed neutrality and that it will become the entente powers to hinder or penalize
the exercise of these rights by Greece, whose friendliness toward the entente is notorious.

The allies' objections are derived from military considerations. The treaty obligations of Greece to Serbia, they hold, were relied upon by the entente powers as one of the essential elements of the Balkan equilibrium, which they helped to establish and are bound to uphold. Hence a definite repudiation of these obligations is hardly compatible with friendly relations towards the states which are obliged to insist on their observance.

Knowing the simple psychology of the monarch, his firm resolve to redeem his pledged word to his imperial brother-in-law, even at the cost of the nation's plighted word to Serbia, I am disposed to regard Greece's spontaneous co-operation with the allies as no longer to be hoped for.

COULD NOT ADVANCE FROM THE TRENCHES

Attempts Made by Germans
North of Arras Last Night Failures

Paris, Oct. 23.—Yesterday evening detachments of German troops endeavored to advance from their trenches near Le Bois-en-Hache and Givenchy, north of Arras, but they were dispersed quickly according to the official statement given out by the war office this afternoon.

In the Champagne district the Germans started an attack but the French repulsed them back with heavy losses.
"In the Lorraine district," says the statement, "we attacked and captured after hand-to-hand fighting a German trench near the junction of the Leinyre-Gondrecourt and the Ameneourt-Reillon railroad lines."

GERMAN OFFICER SHOT FRENCH WOMAN AT LIEGE

Amsterdam, Oct. 23.—The Telegraaf publishes an article from its Antwerp correspondent under the title "The Paternal Administration of Belgium," in which it is said that some weeks ago
a French woman, Mlle. Louise Frenay, was executed at Liege.

The correspondent says that the aim of the German firing squad was not accurate and that, as in the case of Miss Edith Cavell, under similar circumstances, the commanding officer of the firing squad was obliged to put Mlle.
Frenay to death by shooting her through the head with his revolver.

ITALIAN SQUADRON AIDING IN ATTACK

Taking Part in Bombardment of Bulgarian Coast on Aegean Sea

ATTACK ON DEDEAGATCH OPENED ON THURSDAY

Ships Did Not Throw Shells
Into Residential Parts of the City

Brindisi, Oct. 23.—An Italian squadron is taking part in the blockade and bombardment by the allied fleets
of the Bulgarian coast on the Aegean Sea, according to a wireless message received here to-day.

Dedeagatch Shelled.
Paris, Oct. 23.—A communication was given out by the ministry of marine this afternoon announcing that the warships of the allies had bombarded on Thursday the Bulgarian port of Dedeagatch, on the Aegean Sea. The statement said:

"The allied squadrons bombarded the warehouses and wharves at Dede-gatch on the afternoon of the 21st, but did not fire upon the residential quarters of the city. Besides this the fleet destroyed a number of military posts
along the Bulgarian coast."

British, French and Russian.
London, Oct. 23.—The admiralty today issued the following statement:
"A bombardment of the Bulgarian coast was carried out by an allied squadron composed of British, French and Russian ships on the afternoon of the 21st.

"A number of military positions were shelled and serious damage was inflicted on the harbor works, the railway station and shipping at Dede-gatch. Great care was exercised by the allied squadron to avoid firing upon any points other than those known to be of military importance."

Bulgarian Statement.
Sofia, Oct. 23.—A statement issued by the war office to-day claims that the bombardment of Dedeagatch by the allied fleet on Thursday was a failure from a military standpoint, the city being practically without damage.

Government officials say Dedeagatch was bombarded more for the political effect it would have on Greece than under the belief that it would interfere with the Bulgarian campaign.

SITUATION REGARDED AS FAVORABLE NOW

Russian Military Authorities Pleased With Changes on Eastern Front

Petrograd, Oct. 23.—The Russian military authorities regard the situation along the entire front, approximately 675 miles, as favorable from their point of view. Three days ago the German efforts between Mitau and the Gulf of Riga presented a serious problem. At the present time the status in that sector is considered by the Russians as satisfactory. The Germans have been checked and their sphere of action is being narrowed constantly.

Eastward the Russians are pressing the Germans successfully, gaining ground in many places, their most considerable success recently has been at Postawy. This town was taken and the Germans were driven westward through Duka, in a fierce battle.

From that vicinity south to the Baranovichi region there is little activity at present. In the immediate vicinity of Baranovichi the Russians are still on the offensive.

In Galicia the Russians are following up their success with the vigor of their attack, the exhaustion of the German troops and the increasing difficulties of transportation with which the Austrians and Germans have to constantly contend. It is stated that the Germans have detached two armies for service in Serbia. These are the armies of Generals von Gallwitz and Koevess.

NO MEAT ON TWO DAYS EACH WEEK IN GERMANY

Berlin, Oct. 23.—The federal government to-day decided to assume control of the prices and supplies of victuals throughout Germany.

Up to the present time the provincial authorities have been considered competent to handle the food situation.

London, Oct. 23.—The Amsterdam correspondent of Reuter's says that according to advices from Berlin the federal council has forbidden the sale on two days of each week of dishes consisting of meat.

GREATER DEMAND FOR SMALL APARTMENTS

Decline in Rents of Luxurious Apartments in Paris Probably Will Continue

Paris, Oct. 23.—There are evidences that the upward movement of rents in Paris has received a lasting check. A luxurious apartment in the Avenue de l'Alma that rented for 25,000 francs a year has just been leased for 17,000. In the quarter of the Parc Monceau apartments that were in great demand at 6,000 francs are offered now at 5,000. Before the war, in the quarters where commerce in luxuries flourishes particularly, the landlord never had to seek a tenant. He simply marked up the rentals 10 per cent. in anticipation of the expiration of the lease and waited for his customer, he was never obliged to advertise. To-day one of the striking features of these same quarters is the long wide bands of canvas that here at there advertise an apartment on a story for rent. There are dozens of them on the grand boulevards from the Place de la Concorde to the Place de la Republique; there are four in the Place Vendôme, several in the Avenue de l'Opera and the Rue de la Paix. Some of the former tenants have gone out of business, some have sought other less expensive quarters and others simply have compromised with the landlord.

Real estate experts predict that the decline in commercial rents and rents for luxurious apartments will continue after the war while small and modest apartments will be unchanged or higher. A great many families broken up by the war and with finances more or less tied up will abandon large apartments and increase the demand for smaller ones.

WILL INCREASE REVENUE.

Rome, Oct. 23.—The decree taxing business concerns, telegraph companies and persons exempted from military duty will increase the government's revenue by $12,000,000 a year, according to estimates here.

BATTALION OF FORMER RESIDENTS OF STATES
Ottawa, Oct. 23.—It has been decided to raise and equip in Canada a crack regiment of former residents of the United States now resident in the Dominion. Organization already is proceeding for its enlistment and mobilization, according to an announcement made by Major-General Sir Sam Hughes.

Ever since the commencement of the war, American, Russian, French, Italian, Montenegrin and other citizens resident in Canada have enlisted in considerable numbers and have acquitted themselves in common with the other Canadian troops, with conspicuous gallantry. Now, for the first time, however, a full regiment of former United States citizens is to be enlisted to take its place on the firing line.

The regiment, promises to be as fine a body of men as any yet recruited in the Dominion.

OVER 2,000 TAKEN IN BARANOWICHI REGION

Russians Crossed Sava; Austrians Admit They Retired Near Novo Alexinie

Petrograd, Oct. 23.—The official communication issued last evening ran as follows:

"On the western front, in the region of the village of Zalay, and west of Olai, on the Mitau road, we yesterday repulsed a fresh violent attack by the enemy."

"On the front south of Lake Roginsk our troops progressed at some points toward the west. German counter-attacks were launched several times, but in many cases they were repulsed with heavy losses simply by the well sustained fire of our troops."

"A violent engagement near the village of Donsk, west of the village of Sostav, ended in the taking of this village by our troops."

"Southeast of Baranowichi, our troops, fighting, crossed to the west bank of the Upper Sava and occupied the heights of the village of Mazurki, taking, in the course of the fighting, 20 officers and 1,500 men and 3 machine guns."

"According to latest information, the number of prisoners taken in the different districts by this region has increased to 67 officers and 2,925 men."

"On the remainder of the front, more to the south, and in Galicia, nothing of importance has occurred with the exception of fighting to our advantage near Novo Alexinie and to the north of this point."

"On the Caucasian front on the 20th, in the coast region southeast of Khopad and on the banks of the Tchoruk and near Lake Tortum there were lively outpost engagements."

"Near the village of Ekrech, the Hamidian cavalry, in spite of the receipt of reinforcements, was thrown back towards the Khopad region."

"On the north and south shores of Lake Van, near the villages of Ardjan and Natch, there were advance guard actions. On the remainder of the front there is no change."

Enemy Forced Back.

Vicna, Oct. 23.—The following communication was issued yesterday:

"In East Galicia the Russians continued their attacks. We retired to our front before the pressure of superior forces over a length of five kilometers (3.1 miles) and a depth of 1,000 paces. All attacks against the new positions were unsuccessful, as likewise were attacks against our front east of Zalceze owing to the superiority of our batteries."

"The fighting on the Styria has increased in violence. The Russians, employing strong forces, lately had driven a wedge into the German and Austro-Hungarian front west of Carstorsk. Yesterday, after reserves had been brought up, we counter-attacked. Near Olonek the enemy was caught and thrown back on three sides."

"The enemy's attempt to create a diversion in his favor by attacks north-west of Carstorsk and against Kolki were unsuccessful owing to the resistance of the German troops. The forces of Gen. Count Herbststein, fighting south of Kolki, suddenly left the trenches and put the enemy to flight, capturing two officers and 600 men."

"During the fighting between Kormyn and the Styria, which has not yet ended, we have captured since October 15, fifteen officers and 3,000 men, one gun and eight machine guns."

"The enemy several times attacked our forces in Lithuania and succeeded in entering our positions, but all his attacks were finally repulsed."

INDIA SENDING SHELLS FOR BRITISH ARMIES
London, Oct. 23.—It is announced that shipments of shells manufactured in private factories and workshops in India have begun, the work having been carried out successfully in India through the process from the iron ore to the finished product.

The work called for co-operation between railway shops, numerous private factories and workshops belonging to chiefs of native states. The quality of the shells is said to be excellent.

BULGARIAN COAST BEING BOMBARDED
Athens, Oct. 23.—It was announced officially that 2 bombardment of the Bulgarian coast from Dedagatch to Port Lagos, a distance of forty miles, was begun by the allied fleets on Thursday.

NEW TAX.
London, Oct. 23.—The new budget, which provides for a super-tax of 50 per cent. on the profits of all British companies, already has caused the removal to the United States of the headquarters of several companies representing South and Central American gold mines. Mining men here assert that unless the tax is reduced this movement will become so great that New York, instead of London, will become the mining capital of the world.

DESTROYED HOMES OF MEMBERS OF COMMITTEE

Shanghai, Oct. 23.—Difficulties which beset educational leaders in their battle against Chinese superstition are illustrated in a recent riot at Pootai, caused by the conversation of a Buddhist monastery into a public school.

For several years the Sunching monastery had been used in part for school purposes. In deference to the superstition of the villagers, however, the school committee did not remove the idols of Kuan Yin and other Buddhas from the monastery until such a step became necessary to make room for more pupils.

The monks were indignant and inspired a number of luges to circulate the report that Buddha Kuan Yin, by means of inspiration, had ordered them to ask the countrymen to resist the removal of the images from the monastery temple.

Fired by the monastic warning, excited countrymen organized a mob and destroyed all the public school furniture and books. The mob then moved against Messrs. Tsai and Tung, members of the public school committee, and destroyed their homes. All the shops and public buildings in the village closed to avoid the fury of the mob, but no further damage was done.

The rioters all reside within the jurisdiction of Shanghai officials who are attempting now to locate the leaders of the mob.

THERE WILL BE ANOTHER GEN. HUGHES SHORTLY

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—There is to be another General Hughes. It is understood that Col. John Hughes, now camp commandant at Valcartier, is to be gazetted shortly as brigadier-general. Col. Hughes, who is a brother of the minister of militia and an uncle of Brigadier-General Garnet Hughes, the son of Sir Sam, is an active member of the military family of Hughes. He was the officer commanding the Barrfield camp, and lately in charge of 5,000 men at Valcartier.

DIED AT EARLY AGE OF THIRTY-FIVE YEARS

Vancouver, Oct. 23.—The death of John J. Cashion has removed one of the best known men in Pacific Coast Roman Catholic forestry.

The late Mr. Cashion became connected with the order five years ago, and almost from the date of his initiation was marked out as a coming force in the movement. When the present state chief ranger, Bro. R. Evans, Vancouver, determined on an aggressive campaign on both sides of the international line for new members, Mr. Cashion was selected for propaganda work. He visited Seattle, Spokane, Portland and other centres, and did excellent service in solidifying existing courts and in forming new branches.

At the summer biennial meeting of Washington state court, Bro. Cashion received the honor of being appointed one of the three state court trustees.

In addition to his mother, two brothers and a sister, he leaves a young widow and an infant daughter. He was about 35 years of age.

HE IS PROUDEST OF GUARD OF LONDON

Retiring Lord Mayor Rejoices That He Assisted in Forming It

London, Oct. 23.—Sir Charles Johnston, who retired from office as Lord Mayor of London on Nov. 9, is the first of the 725 men who have held that office who can boast that he has not given or attended a single public dinner during the whole year of his incumbency.

"That, of course, is due to the war," he explains, "for the war has changed all our preconceived notions of what a London mayoralty means. We have been a serious people the past year, with no time for ceremonials and an eye single to the grim business before us. Those who know my horror of speech-making tell me with a smile that I could not have had a more congenial mayoralty even if I had selected my own year."

The lord mayor quits his chair with at least one regret that he was unable to carry out his cherished plan to visit Canada and the United States during his term of office.

"I have many friends in America," he said, "and I have crossed the Atlantic no fewer than 25 times. But for the war I should have spent my vacation in Canada and the United States and have been the first lord mayor to visit America while in office."

The Guard.

In reply to a question as to what particular part of his year's work he was proudest of, Sir Charles said:

"Without any hesitation, I would answer the establishment of that splendid body of men, the National Guard of the City of London. I rejoice to have taken a leading part in the inception and organization of that important branch of the system of national defence."

"Other interesting features of the year's work on its war side were my scheme for providing brass bands for raising of the Bankers' battalion for the front line; the presidency of the lord mayor, the National Committee of Relief in Belgium had raised $500,000, and several other wartime charitable funds have had their headquarters in the mayor's offices. The relief fund for the Lusitania did not take—I do not know why, for the circumstances under which the 1,200 victims lost their lives were of peculiar horror, and should, I think, have attracted greater generosity from the public, who had been especially liberal with the two previous disasters to the Titanic and the Empress of Ireland."

Lord Mayor of War.

"I am not a prophet and I have no means of knowing or estimating the duration of the war, but I hope that my successor, Sir Charles Wakefield, will see its close, and that he will be able to associate himself with the blessings and rejoicing of victory and peace, while I—if I am remembered at all—will be spoken of perhaps as the Lord Mayor of the War."

The new lord mayor will take office at midday on November 9, when he makes the time-honored progress to the law courts to greet and receive the congratulations of the judges. In the evening there is the inaugural banquet in the ancient Guildhall, at which the members of the cabinet, the principal judges, the diplomatic corps and a few other notables will be the guests of the lord mayor and his two sheriffs.

HIGHLANDERS FORMED A GUARD OF HONOR

Harry Piddock and Miss Elfrida Hart Hoff Married in St. John's Church, Courtenay.

Courtenay, Oct. 23.—The marriage of Miss Elfrida Hart Hoff to Harry Piddock took place on Tuesday at St. John's church. The bride's dress was of white serge trimmed with old lace, with a beautiful veil and orange blossoms. She was attended by Miss Stella Sackville as bridesmaid, who wore a dress of sage blue satin cloth, and by Gwendoline Smith as flower girl. The bridegroom had his brother, Reginald Piddock, as best man. E. Mitchell gave the bride away.

A guard of honor of the Gordon Highlanders, commanded by Sergeant Kinloch, attended the bride party. This was equivalent to the bride's brother was one of the first to respond to the call for volunteers and went out with the first overseas contingent, being wounded in action and invalided home. He has recovered and has been given a commission as second lieutenant in the 2nd Black Regiment.

The wedding service was conducted by the vicar and the organ was played by Mrs. Laycock, who sang a solo during the signing of the register. A reception was held afterwards at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mitchell. The happy pair were the recipients of many and costly presents.

They will make their home at Quilichan, B.C.

ON THE OFFENSIVE NOW AT ALL POINTS

Italians Have Broken Enemy's Lines at Several Places on Carso Plateau

Rome, Oct. 23.—The following statement was issued last night by the war office:

"The offensive begun in the Tyrol and Trentino has been extended all along the line to the sea. Many Austrian prisoners have been taken."

"On the Carso front the enemy's lines have been broken at several points and the enemy's forces annihilated. Twenty-five officers and 1,184 men have been made prisoners."

Vienna Statement.

Vienna, Oct. 23.—The following official statement was issued last night:

"As expected yesterday afternoon, after an artillery preparation of more than fifty hours, the main forces of the Italian army began generally to storm our positions in the coastal district, the third attack since the war began. Bitter fighting is proceeding at the Tolmino bridgehead, and especially at the edge of the Dobrovo plateau."

"An attack against the Kna point of support succeeded under heavy losses. A second attack in this region after a short time was unsuccessful owing to our fire. The next day our position was covered with Italian corpses."

"The Tolmino bridgehead attacks were directed chiefly against the southern part of our defensive front. All the attacks were sanguinarily repulsed. The Italian losses also were heavy here."

Positions Penetrated.

At Monte San Michele, strong forces in the afternoon penetrated the covers of our trenches, but every where were repulsed. In our counter attacks all our former positions are in our possession again. After several attacks, the Italians also succeeded in penetrating trenches in a neighboring sector, but none of them returned. The southwest plateau likewise was the scene of a sanguinary struggle. The attacks were repulsed in hand to hand fighting, and the losses were heavy."

"During the previous night the fighting on the plateau of Dobrovo continued with undiminished violence. In the Carinthia Hochweissensteinf, Monte Peralt and Plochen regions and the Subak Valley, weaker attacks were repulsed. There is continual violent artillery fighting on the Tyrol front."

"On our front in the Dolomites new Italian attacks broke down against our strong positions."

DUNCAN HELPS WITH WORK OF RED CROSS

Proceeds of Navy League Concert to Be Sent to Governor-General to Be Forwarded.

Duncan, Oct. 23.—The Navy League concert held on Thursday night in the Duncan opera house was thoroughly good and very well patronized.

The chairman, Sir Clive Phillips-Wheeler, in his opening speech, removed the objection to celebrating a British victory over the French by saying that Trafalgar Day could be held in memory not only of the men who had fought on the British side, but also of the chivalrous men who had fought on the French side. In her battles with the French, both on sea and on land, Britain had always met a foe who fought a clean fight.

For ten years the Navy League had proposed the present war. Britain's fleet was her first and last line of defence and when war broke out for once her navy was up to concert pitch. As a result the German navy was safely in cold storage in Kiel harbor. The sea which divide also the links that bind, and foodstuffs and supplies were being carried more than ever between ports of the empire and neutrals. The British fleet had whipped the German navy off every sea of the world.

For a time it seemed that victory might be a menace, the British fleet had picked up most of them. The British sailors had got on to their curves and the hunting of submarines was now the most successful of the field sports of Britain. The navy had conveyed 1,000,000 men to the fighting fields almost without loss.

Sir Clive prophesied that the prosperity of British Columbia would come back in a way people little dreamed of when "we have fulfilled our destiny and have become the carriers of the Pacific."

In the programme that followed, every number was of the highest merit and was enthusiastically enjoyed. Mrs. H. Pooley, Mr. Morrison, of Victoria, Mr. Esle Randall, of Vancouver, and Mrs. Annie Johnson, Miss E. Egan and Mr. Maris Hale, of Cowichan, took part, with Mrs. Bondock and Mr. Willett, of Duncan, playing the accompaniments. The proceeds are to be handed over by the Navy League to the governor-general for the Red Cross.

CLEAR OF DEBT.

Courtenay, Oct. 23.—The report read by the secretary at the annual meeting of the Comox Agricultural association, held in the agricultural hall here, indicated that the association has made great progress during the past year. The treasurer's report also was very good, showing the society absolutely clear of debt and with a small balance on hand. Joseph McPhee was re-elected president and P. L. Anderson secretary.

Hugh Stewart, the Liberal candidate for Comox district, went to Alberni and Parksville on Wednesday, intending to return at the end of the week.

PUT IN CLAIMS FOR TWENTY-THREE CARS

Govt. Did Not Receive One of G. A. Mitchell's Carloads of Hay

Regina, Oct. 23.—G. A. Mitchell, the vendor of a large quantity of hay to the Regina branch of the remount department, submitted to the government claims for eight carloads of hay which never existed and additional claims for fifteen carloads shipped from various points to Mitchell, but which were diverted to other points or disposed of in some other way than by delivery to the remount department.

This evidence, given first on Thursday, was confirmed by a number of witnesses before Sir Charles Davidson yesterday. All of the twenty-three claims, it was brought out, were supported by forged freight bills. None of the carloads was ever delivered, their total value being about $3,000.

In the afternoon the commission went to the Grey Nuns' hospital, where the evidence of D. Bennett, secretary of the Regina branch of the remount department, was taken. Bennett is seriously ill and unable to attend the sittings of the commission.

TO JAIL FOR TWO YEARS FOR FALSE PRETENCES

Fernie, Oct. 23.—The criminal assizes ended yesterday.

A charge of jail-breaking at Cranbrook against a young man named Chas. Leukie, who had been serving a sentence for vagrancy, was heard. He pleaded guilty and was let go on suspended sentence.

J. C. Ellis, charged with having obtained money and credit under false pretences, having secured money from a hotel-keeper, McDonald, of Cranbrook, upon false representations as to the value of a diamond pin, had no lawyer to defend him and was found guilty and sentenced to two years in New Westminster penitentiary. Ellis' record was not good.

Next Monday two divorce cases and a case for damages are to be heard. The divorce case is against the Nicola Pine Lumber company, brought by a M. Lyon.

ANOTHER "UNDERTAKING"

Again comes the announcement that the Canadian Northern Pacific Railway is about to resume work on Vancouver Island, including rail-laying on the two lines and the establishment of terminals on the reserve. "It is hoped" to have a section of the West Coast branch, as far as the first point reached at tidewater, completed before the end of the year and rails will arrive shortly from Port Mann for the line to Patricia Bay. The work on the reserve, however, will be temporary, pending the completion of arrangements for the construction of the Johnson-street bridge across the harbor.

The people will be pardoned for accepting this latest assurance with the greatest reserve. They have heard the tale before times without number. It first fell upon their receptive ears almost six years ago, when they endorsed the agreement with the company under which these works were to be completed by the summer of 1914. Three years ago they were assured that the terminals site question had been settled, and that work would be commenced at once and "rushed" to completion. If extended end to end the columns of reports of the assurances they received from the Premier, the morning paper and the railway promoters would reach to Patricia Bay and back.

But in any event a temporary terminal or any other makeshift expedient in connection with the island project will not do. The naive suggestion that nothing of a permanent character can be established on the reserve until the Johnson street bridge is completed is not acceptable as an excuse for the non-fulfillment by the company of its part of the contract. The Canadian Northern Pacific Railway Company is not a party to the Johnson street bridge project. It refused to contribute to the cost of the undertaking on the ground that the company would derive no benefit from it. Now when financial conditions are such that the bridge proposal is very much in the air it becomes a factor in the Canadian Northern programme. The delay in the construction of an improvement which had no bearing upon its plans two or three years ago is alleged as the reason why Victoria should accept a temporary provision in lieu of the permanent facilities the company solemnly bound itself six years ago to establish here. Incidentally it may be observed that the province has guaranteed the bonds of the company for terminals on this coast in the sum of $10,000,000. Of that amount, according to a return presented to the legislature last session, more than $8,000,000 have been raised. Little over a quarter of that sum has been expended on the six terminal sites. Where is the remainder?

Of course we shall be told that the company cannot establish permanent terminals until it is possible to carry out the whole scheme, involving the erection of a union station in connection with which the proposed harbor bridge will be an important accessory. In the first place, considerations of that nature did not appear in the agreement ratified by the electors of the province which bound the company to provide, not temporary terminals, but adequate terminals by 1914. In the second place, if the fulfillment by the company of its contract with the province be permitted to depend upon the completion of other works it may be years before the electors will have an opportunity of seeing what they voted for and will have been paying for established on this island.

There is another factor which should not be lost sight of. Under its agreement with the company the province will have to pay the annual interest on the bonds in the shape of a loan for three years after the road goes into operation, the loan to be repayable when the bonds mature. In twenty-five or thirty years. Announcement has been made, and is repeated to-day, that the service on the main line will be opened on November 1. There can be little doubt that the company will hold the province to the fulfillment of its financial obligation, which will amount to something like $1,000,000 a year. The taxpayers on this island will have to bear their proportion of that large sum. That being so, they are entitled to expect that the company will perform its part of the contract in regard to the island section to the letter. They have the right to demand the immediate completion of the lines, terminals and ferry according to the standard promised to them upon their assumption of a heavy obligation on behalf of the company.

A PROVINCIAL ELECTION?

While in the east the Attorney-General intimated in an interview that there would not be a provincial election until next year. The signs and portents, however, point the other way. One indication that the government intends to take the plunge before long is the announcement of the early resumption of work on the Canadian Northern Pacific section on this island, although the new assurance hints a little in the absence of any reference to the modern passenger and freight car-ferry service between Patricia Bay and the mainland.

Another factor in the situation lies in the disclosures in the coal mine case now before the Supreme Court, involving the Provincial Secretary in such a way as to require the most searching investigation of the whole matter by an impartial tribunal. We are much mistaken if there will not be a stern public demand for such an investigation, and it may safely be predicted that the administration will prefer to try its fortunes in an election first with an inquiry as a hazy possibility afterwards.

When the government does face the electors it will have to depend solely upon its machine, just as the Roblin ministry had no other resource but its organization and a plugged voters' list in the election which preceded the contest that placed the Norris government in power. Its record is known to the people and no specious promises will be accepted. The electors have seen a great light since the spring of 1912, when they were so prosperous that they did not bother to study the issues and took the government at its own valuation.

THE GROWING PRESSURE.

Notwithstanding the fact that the news from the Balkan peninsula for the moment is unfavorable it should not cause us to overlook the important pressure that is being exercised by the Russians on the eastern front between Elnsk and Bukovina. It is from that part of the line that the Austro-German army in the Balkans largely has been drawn and judging by Ivanoff's successes on the Stry and at Novo Alexine during the last few days the strain is becoming so severe that the line either must be reinforced or compelled to retreat. This portion of the Teuton front is being held largely by Austrians, and Austria, who has sustained enormous losses in the struggle, undoubtedly is in serious difficulties in spite of the advance in Serbia. She has been compelled to increase her forces on the Italian front, for although the fact seems to be generally overlooked—a decisive Italian victory would mean a blow at the very heart of the dual monarchy. She also must maintain strong forces on the Rumanian frontier. Obviously she is weakening under the strain on the main front, against which Russian thrusts are becoming more frequent and more successful. She cannot obtain much help from Germany, because von Hindenburg requires numerous forces in the north, and his line from Priepet marsh to Dwinsk has become so thin that it has been broken in several places within the last few weeks. It is worth bearing in mind that the Teutons' eastern campaign must have cost them between a million and half and two million casualties. Moreover Germany dare not withdraw any more troops from the west. The allies' successful attacks in Artois and Champagne have taught her the folly of anything of that sort. On the contrary she has been compelled to strip her garrisons to reinforce that front, and she knows that just as soon as the allies have made the necessary preparation they will deliver another blow. Therefore what advance the Teutonic forces may make in the south it is obvious that they cannot hold their present positions in the east and west as well, and we look for another installment of favorable news from either of the main fronts before long.

The London Telegraph takes pains to impress upon its readers that this is the darkest hour since the war began. This tendency to magnify every operation the enemy makes into a terrible menace shows a curious lack of perspective. We doubt if either France or Russia or Belgium will subscribe to the view that this is her darkest hour. Now that it is ours, and it would not be if the enemy reached Constantinople. Our darkest hour and, in much greater proportion, that of France, was a year ago last August when the allied armies, constantly threatened with envelopment and destruction, were forced to the Marne. When that victory was won the darkest hour of both France and ourselves passed away, for there and there only the issue of this war trembled in the balance. Russia has just passed through four months of deepest gloom such as she never can experience again. Undoubtedly this is Serbia's darkest hour, and it is an hour that none of the rest of us ever can know. Messages of cheer and encouragement to the gallant little state would be more becoming than disheartening comments and prophecies.

The war has hit the local Y. M. C. A. hard. A large proportion of the young men who were the backbone of the institution are fighting the battles of the empire and of freedom at the front. But for this unforeseen condition of affairs the Y. M. C. A. doubtless would have flourished as it had done in the past, not only meeting current liabilities but wiping out gradually the bonded indebtedness. Now there is nothing for the directors to do but ask the public to come to the rescue and save the building from threatened foreclosure proceedings. We understand that an appeal will be made shortly, and doubt not that the response will be in harmony with the importance of the work the institution has done and is doing in the city.

The King's appeal for recruits and the bitter anger of the British people over the brutal murder of Miss Cavell should be strikingly reflected in the enlistment figures. His Majesty's message is undoubtedly intended to strengthen the hands of Lord Derby, who is engaged in a six-week campaign to see if the voluntary system will give the number of men required by Earl Kitchener for reinforcements. There can be no doubt that it will have a powerful effect.

The Kaiser has authorized the announcement that he purposed celebrating Christmas in Constantinople. Quite an appropriate place for a monarch who is such an exemplar of high Christian principles and practices to spend the day which commemorates "peace on earth and goodwill towards men." Possibly the all-highest will grace the occasion by attending services in company with his illustrious ally, the Sultan, in the mosque of St. Sophia.

After all it is rather complimentary to Great Britain for the Prussian Junkers to announce that the object of the Balkan campaign is to compel her to agree to terms of peace. This is a tribute to the power and might of Britain, and yet there are other factors in the war. France, Russia, Italy, and even harried heroic Belgium and Serbia, have demonstrated, and will prove again, that they are forces to be reckoned with.

Sir Sam Hughes has graciously elevated another member of his more or less distinguished family to the rank of general. If this sort of thing continues the Hughes family will have a practical monopoly of high military honors and emoluments in Canada. When parliament meets it will have to take the militia department in hand, a job that seems to be utterly beyond the capacity of Sir Robert Borden.

Forgery is the latest felony that has been laid bare in connection with war contracts. Mr. Carvell probably did not exaggerate when he said the grafters operating under Sir Sam Hughes had been guilty of high treason against Canadians in the trenches. But, you see, Sir Sam may be busy considering whether "his sisters and his cousins and his aunts" are not worthy of high honors and lucrative posts in the militia department.

The losses sustained by Australia and New Zealand now reach 25,000, practically all of which occurred at Gallipoli. This is an impressive total, but its sole effect has been to spur the people of the southern dominions to redoubled efforts not only in the enlistment of men but in other directions. Australia has just successfully floated a domestic loan for $100,000,000.

Whatever choice Greece makes now, she has lost her opportunity for the realization of her historic dreams. No government could live in Great Britain, France or Russia, that proposed to give any substantial reward to the country which basely deserted an ally in the face of danger until others had saved the situation.

Speaking of iron crosses, surely the Kilted Teuton who with his own hand conferred martyrdom on Nurse Cavell is worthy of some special and extraordinary favor from the all-highest assassin of Potedam.

Perfidious the Fox has been decorated with an iron cross. His dutiful subjects will get theirs later on.

Why John Wanamaker Insured His Life for $1,500,000

As a result of my own thinking, without any moving cause except my own judgment, I deliberately worked out these five conclusions:

1. I was insurable, and accident or ill-health might come at any moment, when I would not be insurable.
2. That life insurance was one of the best forms of investment, because it gave, after one deposit, an instant guarantee that might repay principal and interest and more.
3. That life insurance in the long run was a saving fund, that not only saved, but took average care of my deposits, and took me into partnership in possible profits that not infrequently returned principal and interest and profit.
4. That life insurance, regarded from the standpoint of quick termination, was more profitable than any other investment that I could make.
5. That it enabled a man to give away all he wished during his lifetime by providing an estate for those left behind.

One of my first acts upon coming of age was to take out a policy, and I have been taking out others ever since.—John Wanamaker.

Ladies' Committee Y. M. C. A.—The Ladies' committee of the Y. M. C. A. will hold their regular monthly business meeting on Monday, Oct. 25, at 3 p.m. Business of importance will be transacted.

St. Mary's, Oak Bay.—At St. Mary's church, Oak Bay, Thanksgiving services will be held to-morrow. The service in the morning will be preached by Rev. H. T. Archibald, and in the evening by the rector, Rev. G. H. Andrews.

New Thought Lectures.—Dr. T. W. Butler will lecture to-morrow at the Progress Temple, corner Pandora and Blanshard streets, at 11 a.m. on "Jesus, a Revelation of Man's Divinity." At 7.30 p.m. his subject will be "The Law of Prosperity."

Continues Series of Sermons.—On Sunday evening J. C. Inkster will preach in the First Presbyterian church on the subject "The Christian's Fact of Our Faith." He will answer the question, "Can Christ Forgive Sins?" Mr. Inkster states that this question is the most vital of the whole series.

Lecture On Social Science.—The second lesson in Social Science, issued by the Royal School of Social Science, will be given in the rooms of the Victoria Printing & Publishing Co., 521 Yates street, on Monday evening at 8 p.m. Those interested in the historical development of industry and kindred sciences are cordially invited to attend.

Raspberries in November.—Fred Grant, one of the Times printers, residing at 1916 Princess avenue, visited the reporter this morning and left a small branch laden with raspberries. The fact that this fruit is growing out-of-doors at this season of the year shows the richness of Victoria's climate. The berries were large, well-formed and of fine taste.

Talks to Thinking Men.—A series of "Stirring Talks to Thinking Men," by prominent speakers, has been arranged for in connection with the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon men's rally, which takes place every Sunday at 4 o'clock in the spacious lobby of the Association building. The third of these talks will be given to-morrow by Rev. F. W. Stapleton, whose theme will be "Our Greatest Obligation: What?" There will be some good chorus singing, solos and duets, followed by a "Fellowship Supper," to which all men are invited.

St. Jude's Mission.—To-morrow evening at St. Jude's mission, Obed Assise, there will be a special service at 7 o'clock in connection with the Festival of St. Simon and St. Jude. The Lord Bishop of Columbia will preach. The service will also be a Harvest Thanksgiving service. On Monday evening there will be a social gathering at 7.30 at the mission. Admission ten cents. There will be a short musical programme, followed by refreshments and games.

Metropolitan Methodist Church.—The pastor of the Metropolitan Methodist church, Rev. C. T. Scott, B. A., D. D., will preach at both services on Sunday, the subject of the evening sermon being "Theatres: The Ideal and the Real." The programme for the organ festival, commencing at 7 o'clock, is as follows: Grand Chorus in D (Spencer); Andante con moto in E flat (Guilmant); Overture to the Occasional cantata; Andante Maestoso, Allegro, Andante and March (Handel); The Angelus (Grey).

To Visit Here.—Walter Thomas Mills, the author of "The Struggle for the West," who is now a resident of Berkeley, California, and is engaged in the writing of another book which is likely to create a wider interest, owing to its dealing with matters which are now enjoying a world-wide interest. The Social Democratic party will endeavor to arrange one or two addresses while the lecturer is in the city.

Local Elks.—Thursday's meeting of the Elks lodge was a bumper affair. After the usual routine of business was transacted the large attendance was treated to a highly interesting lecture by P. C. Kermode, curator of the provincial museum. The subject chosen by Mr. Kermode was "Wild Life in B. C.," and needless to say his discourse was much appreciated by the local Elks. Then followed an impromptu programme of songs, recitations, etc., by various members of the order, which numbers among its membership artists of pleasing versatility. During the evening refreshments were served and after the 11 o'clock (last) the members repaired to their homes, voting the meeting one of the most pleasant affairs of the local lodge.

Next Thursday, October 28, the Elks will hold their first dance of the winter season, at their clubrooms, Campbell building, and it is confidently expected that their successes of the past two seasons will be repeated. Invitations may be procured upon application to the secretary or committee in charge of same.

Constipation causes mental and physical suffering. Rexall's—A gentle laxative—promptly relieves constipation. Sold only by D. E. Campbell, The Rexall Store, 192, 25c. and 50c. boxes.

First Baptist Church.—Rev. J. B. Warnicker at the First Baptist church to-morrow will preach in the morning on the subject: "The Ten Commandments Up to Date: Present-day Paganism." In the evening his topic will be "Was Christ a Social Reformer or a Spiritual Teacher Only?" There will be a people's popular song service from 7.15 to 7.30 preceding the evening service.

Police Have Guest.—The police have had as a guest since yesterday Albert E. Besheart, aged 13, who ran away from his father's home at Olympia, and came to Victoria. He got here yesterday, and Sergeant Fry, attracted by the lad's odd behavior, soon learned there was something wrong. He took care of the boy, who said he had run away to see the world. The police have sent a message to the parents, and the father is coming for the boy to-day.

Rowland's Band Concert.—A piano solo by Master Wilson Newitt, the boy pianist, will be a feature of the concert to be given by Rowland's band at Pantages on Sunday evening. Other attractive numbers will be solos by Mrs. Baird, contralto, and J. Trace, baritone, while the accompaniments will be played by Mrs. Green and Walter Charles. Leonard Tait will be present and will give a short address on temperance. The band selections include "Plantation Songs," a descriptive "Patrol," and the overture to "Northern Lights." The programme will commence at 8.45 with the National Anthem.

Harvest Thanksgiving.—Harvest Thanksgiving services will be held in the Douglas Street Baptist church to-morrow. At the morning service the juvenile choir will sing harvest hymns. The evening service commences at 8 p.m. In addition, to the harvest hymns, the choir will render the anthems, "O Praise God, in His Holiness," by John Weldon, and "Praise the Lord O My Soul," by Michael Watson, and Jackson's "Te Deum." The choir will sing "The Lord's Prayer," "The Lord's Anthem," "Sing to the Lord of Harvest," will be sung. The service will close with Adam's vesper, "Within the Everlasting Arms." Mr. Edwards will preach at both services.

Fifth Regiment Band.—The feature of to-morrow evening's concert at the Royal Victoria theatre by the Fifth Regiment band will be the singing by Mrs. Macdonald Fahey, the well-known soprano, of Dudley Buck's "Tear Ye Not, O Israel." The programme will open with the national anthem of Serbia, and will be as follows: "Overture," "Orpheus," Offenbach; Japanese dance, Clayton Thomas; vocal solo, "With Verdure clad" (Haydn); Mrs. Macdonald Fahey; fantasia, "Echoes from the Metropolitan Opera House," Tosti; from bone solo, "The Better Land," Cowen; Bandman Raine, vocal solo, "Fear Ye Not O Israel" (Dudley Buck); Mrs. Macdonald Fahey; selection from "The Song of Songs," Sir A. Sullivan; march, "La Vivandiere," Rimsky; God Save the King.

Prohibition Rally.—Dr. T. Albert Moore will be the chief speaker at the first Prohibition rally to be held in the old Victoria theatre on Tuesday evening next. Advantage has been taken of Dr. Moore's presence in the city to have him speak on this important question, and there is little doubt that the theatre will be packed for the occasion. There will be an orchestral concert commencing at 7.15, and this will be supplemented by vocal selections by local artists. At 8 o'clock the speaker will take the chair, and after his introductory remarks, William Marchant will make a five-minute speech. The speaker of the evening is well known in Victoria. He is recognized as one of the best orators the Methodist church has produced, and an address from him at this time on Prohibition will be welcomed by those who are in favor of the movement. He has been in touch with the campaign in the other provinces, and he will have much to tell a Victoria audience about ways and means of carrying on the contest here.

United Service Tobacco Fund.—Circles and letters continue to arrive from the soldiers at the front expressing appreciation of the gifts of tobacco and cigarettes sent through the United Service Tobacco fund. The sending of tobacco to the men who are engaged in fighting for their country will appeal to anyone who has experienced the solace of a pipe, and it is hoped that men will continue to give toward the good work. Women have not been the least generous of givers, and the soldiers have sent hundreds of thousands of letters of appreciation from the men through the London and affiliated organizations. The number of men fighting for the very existence of the nation is increasing every day, and the demand for this little added comfort should find some response from every Britisher who appreciates the service that is being given. Mrs. J. C. M. Keith, who recently assumed the office of secretary-treasurer of the fund on the resignation of Miss Gladys L. King, is at the United Service Tobacco headquarters, 627 Fort street, daily from 1.30 to 3.30 for the purpose of receiving subscriptions.

FROM BELGIAN PRISONER.—Strawberry Vale Resident Receives Card From Her Nephew, Now Incarcerated in Germany.—The following postcard has been received by Mrs. W. Cassidy, of Strawberry Vale, from her nephew, Albert Couture, a Belgian soldier, who is now a prisoner-of-war at Bruckenkopf, Germany: "Dear Aunt—My aunt in France has asked me to write to you that they are all in good health, especially my grandfather. As for myself, since August 25, 1914, I have been a prisoner of war, but have always been able to correspond with them. They are well, they tell me, and I too am quite well. ### AT THE THEATRES

"THE CASE OF BECKY."

A strong feature in every way is "The Case of Becky," which will be shown for the last time to-night at the Royal Victoria. The acting of Blanch Sweet, the girl who suffers from a dual personality presents a very remarkable study in psychology and hypnosis. Her dream of continuing in the power of the professional hypnotist suddenly brings out strange qualities. Where by nature, seemingly, modest, quiet and lovely, through the dread of hypnosis she becomes bold, unconfident, morose and vicious in turn. The wicked spirit is finally cast out by a young doctor, well played by Carlyle Blackwell. The subject of the picture is out of the ordinary, the photography and details are of the high standard set by Belasco's productions, and the acting of the different members of the cast is all that can be desired. The programme is rounded off with an excellent comedy in which Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Drew are seen in one of the funniest films entitled "Their Agreement."

DOMINION THEATRE.

Nat Goodwin, the famous actor, makes his final appearance at the Dominion to-night. "The Master Hand," the picture in which Mr. Goodwin is appearing, has been acclaimed by the many who have seen it during the last two days as the finest production seen in the city for some time. The future appearances of Mr. Goodwin will be eagerly looked forward to. For Monday a splendid Famous Players attraction has been secured entitled "The Fatal Card," featuring that delightful actress, Hazel Dawn.

HAZEL DAWN
COLUMBIA THEATRE.

The enchantment of sunny Italy cast its spell over F. Marion Crawford and held him in its thrall. He spent years in this land of sunshine, of gorgeously painted seas and skies, dreaming of love romances that blossomed in ancient castles, of sorrow and tragedies buried within convent walls. A wonderful inspiration came to him. He conceived a story of a great love, of a heart-rending separation, and his soul poured forth all its depth of feeling, all its wealth of imagery in "The White Sister." Then was born the greatest work of his master mind. Viola Allen was captivated by the great dramatic possibilities of this romance. She felt the soul-stirring tragedy of the white sister with all her intense nature, and she put her entire heart into the interpretation of the part. How well she succeeded in bringing out all the great human qualities of the play is attested by its wonderful reception on the speaking stage.

Esanay was quick to see and grasp the exceptional opportunity to produce this great work of fiction through the medium of one of the greatest actresses. It used all its artistic and technical mastery of production to immortalize the inspiration of F. Marion Crawford through Viola Allen's genius of interpretation. And it has given to the world one of the greatest and most stupendous photoplays ever produced. "The White Sister" will be seen at the Columbia theatre for the last time to-night.

PANTAGES THEATRE.

Before a huge audience last night at Pantages theatre, Hardeen, the handiwork king, succeeded in meeting the challenge of the representatives of the Royal Canadian navy, and escaped from the punishment suit, a device used years ago for refractory and insane prisoners. The escape was made from the jacket in full view of the audience. He will make his last appearance to-night.

Next week's programme promises to be a highly attractive one. Musical comedy will come back into its own with the appearance of Braxton's Broadway Revue, its quartette of comedians and its bevy of pretty girls. Billy Batchelor and Don Adams are two of the funniest fellows at large, while Jack Cahill and Don Romafne are hardly less amusing and in addition possess superb singing voices. The girls are from the great New York shows and their costumes are said to be magnificent. There is a heap of bright dialogue and the jokes are fresh from the whence factory. There is also a lot of special scenery to add to the effectiveness of the act.

Three old favorites, Charles King, Virginia Thornton and Erman Seavy, will be seen most advantageously in their newest playlet, "The Greater Price."

A duo of blackface artists, Alexander

A funny man and a funny dog are Ed Vinton and his canine partner, "Buster." They always gather in the laughter.
Remarkable hand and head balancing will be offered by Willis & Hansen, who are gymnasts in their line. There will also be the usual effective motion pictures.

"THREE WEEKS"

A dramatization of the book "Three Weeks," by Elinor Glyn, at the Princess theatre, will give the public a chance to see for themselves whether its popularity is deserved. Elinor Glyn, the English authoress has given to the stage an original plot, a story clothed in beautiful and appropriate language, and surrounded with thrilling incidents of romance, intrigue and military pomp. The heroine, a woman who faces death rather than betray her people in a most picturesque and romantic figure, and the beauty of the character meets every critical requirement. The version is the same as was given in Vancouver some time ago, and the producing company with one or two exceptions is the same. It received unanimous praise from the press and public and made such a success that it was repeated another week. Patrons of the Princess who have witnessed Miss Vane Calvert's work the last two weeks, feel sure that she will make an ideal Queen of Sardinia. Alf Layne will be seen as Paul Verdaine, Mr. Cleveland as the king, and the remainder of the large cast is sure to be satisfactory. Sumptuous stage setting and stage effects will be given the production.

ESQUIMALT RED CROSS.

Weekly Entertainment Held Last Night at Rex Theatre Draws Big Audience.

The second of the Esquimalt Red Cross entertainments, which are to be held once weekly for the next few months, had excellent patronage last evening at the Rex theatre. The programme previously took place in the Rex theatre, and among those present were Admiral Story, R. N., Major Moore, D. S. A., and William Stacey, principal of the Lamson Street school, who acted as chairman, and made a short speech in which he described the self-denial fund. This had been organized by the students of the Lamson Street school to aid the Red Cross, and was doing well.

Owing to their failure to arrive on time the special films advertised for the evening could not be shown, but an entertaining programme was furnished. Rev. W. Baugh-Allen opening the concert with two numbers, "On the Ocean Deep" and "When Green Days Come." E. Pierce recited "Parson Jim" and "The Three Ages of Manhood," and G. Watson sang a solo entitled "The Bassoon." Miss Dorothy Kirk's rendering of "Isle of Dreams" and "Irish Eyes" was very pleasing, and T. Hedley's vocal number, which concluded the last part of the programme. Miss Theresa Mesher gave a graceful representation of a Spanish dancer and a four-piece orchestra added to the pleasure of the evening.

Sergeant (disgustedly, to Private Jones, who is not exactly a Private Fulton at shooting—"Ugh, don't waste your last bullet. Nineteen are quite enough to blaze away without hitting the target once. Go behind that wall and blow your brains out." Jones walked quietly away, and a few seconds later a shot rang out. "Great Scott, the fool's done what I told him!" howled the sergeant, running behind the wall. Great was his relief when he saw Private Jones coming towards him. "Sorry, sergeant," he said apologetically, "another miss."

John Jones was infuriated, but the editor shut him up in two seconds. "Is this the newspaper office?" inquired John Jones. "It is," responded the man at the desk. "Didn't this paper say I was a liar?" "It did not," replied the editor. "Well, some paper said 'It did not' was our contemporary," possibly it was the street, suggested the editor, as he picked up a paper-weight. "This paper never prints a lie."

APPEAL IN AID OF STARVING JEWS IN RUSSIAN POLAND.

Millions of destitute Jews are literally starving and dying from exposure in these regions from the effects of the war. Their government is too much engaged and has not the means to help them.

This is the first time the Jewish community of Victoria has appealed to the public for aid. The situation has become too vast for them to handle by themselves, and we are therefore compelled to appeal to your generosity for assistance.

Subscriptions have been opened by the Times and Commercial Union, and the following banks, Royal Bank, and its branches, Canadian Bank of Commerce, Bank of Montreal and Merchants' Bank of Canada, and the New England Hotel, situate on Government street, in the City of Victoria, to the premises known as the Olympia Cafe, situate at 24 Nelson street, in the said city, and for a transfer of such funds from me to Lawrence Joseph Quaglini, of the City of Victoria.

HALIBUT FISHING IS VERY POOR OFF COAST

Schooner Jessie Arrives With Small Catch and Will Be Laid Up—Plenty of Dog Fish

Halibut off the West Coast and the Strait banks is very scarce, and the fishing schooners are getting very small catches. There is any amount of dogfish, and these are exasperating the fishermen. As a result of the poor luck many vessels are being laid up and the schooner Jessie, Capt. Baker, which returned to port yesterday afternoon with but 3,000 pounds of fish, will be tied up until conditions improve.

The Jessie made two trips into Prince Rupert with fish, but both catches were very small. All the boats fishing out of that port are making small hauls, with the exception of the steam-fishermen which go to the Alaska banks. Men on the Jessie say they have never known the halibut to be so scarce.

Never Got a Halibut.
On her homeward trip the Jessie fished in Hecate Strait, and despite the heavy southeast weather set her rear several times. Off the west coast of the island the vessel made several catches, and on one occasion the six dories set three skates of each but not a single halibut was hooked. Plenty of dogfish were caught, but they are of no use to the halibut schooner.

The weather is very severe off the banks, according to the men on the Jessie. It has been blowing southeast for so long that they are not anxious to see the grounds again for a little time. The weather was biting cold.

All the fish brought to this port were rapidly grabbed by the fish merchants and brought fancy prices.

The Jessie will remain in port until the weather moderates and more fish are reported. It is not likely that she will put to sea before the first of next year.

INQUIRY CONDUCTED INTO FOUNDERING OF CAPILANO

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 23.—Captain John D. Macpherson, wreck commissioner for British Columbia, under authorization from the marine department at Ottawa, held an inquiry yesterday at the court house.

Causes of the foundering of the Union Steamship Company's steamer Capilano, which sank early on the morning of October 1 between Van Anda and Savary Island. Assisting him as assessors were Commander Chas. Unwin, of the Vancouver Nautical Academy, and Captain Abernethy, of the steamer Robert Dollar, which is now in port.

According to Captain Nelson of the Capilano, on the night of September 30 his vessel was making her customary six knots per hour, when out in the Strait and approaching Van Anda, when suddenly those aboard felt a considerable jar. The vessel seemed to rise out of the water a little and then settled down with a sideways motion.

This was about 9:30 o'clock with a fairly strong southeast wind blowing. The night was very dark and somewhat smoky, with frequent rain squalls.

When he felt the jar, the captain testified that he immediately ordered the engines to be stopped and then full speed astern. He once again ordered a stop, and full speed astern, till he thought that the vessel was far enough from the unknown obstruction.

A little later the engines were started again and the Capilano arrived at Van Anda at 10:30. After discharging the cargo consigned to Van Anda, the vessel put out into the Strait, once more about 12 o'clock and proceeded north for an hour or so when it was noticed that she appeared to be getting heavy and sluggish.

The chief engineer, Mr. Donaldson testified that about 2 o'clock the second engineer woke him and warned him that the ship was listing. He dressed and went on deck, finding that the ship was down by the head and had a considerable list to port.

The second engineer had set the steam pumps going and deck pumps were manned by the crew, but the water still gained. The captain ordered the boats to be slung out in case of emergency, and about 3 o'clock the crew abandoned the ship.

She did not sink immediately, however, and the boats remained in the vicinity about two hours when she disappeared, going down by the head.

MONTEAGLE'S CARGO BRINGS HIGH PRICES

Freight Damaged by Fire and Water Brings Sixty Cents on the Dollar

Vancouver, Oct. 23.—The auction of the 1,500-ton cargo more or less damaged in No. 2 hold, of the liner Monteagle by fire and water on October 11, was held yesterday by Messrs. E. Griffin & Co., and owing to a strong contingent of American buyers bidding was brisk, prices good and about sixty cents on the dollar realized. The terms were cash and at the end of the afternoon fifteen thousand dollars had been paid over. The morning sale was conducted at the C. P. R. local, held in the afternoon the venue was changed to the yards west of the pier where most of the cargo was distributed.

The wire, consisting of 1140 bundles of plain, and 2,330 bundles of wire, were purchased by people from Seattle, Tacoma and Portland, but the nails, 3,230 kegs, were bought in by Vancouver men. The cotton piece goods, 143 cases, went to Seattle. There were 32 lots in the catalogue and all were sold. The raw cotton will be sold at a later date. The auctioneers were very pleased at the results attained on a cash basis.

FAMOUS SMUGGLER GOING TO MEXICO

Schooner Halcyon, Formerly of Victoria Sealing Fleet, Has Been Sold

After an adventurous career as a smuggler, sealer and fishing vessel the once famous Halcyon, former pleasure craft of John D. Speckles, the "San Francisco" sailing king, will probably end her days as a trader on the Mexican coast.

The Halcyon has been purchased by Thomas Tjernandson and Edward Peterson, of Seattle, from the Victoria Sealing Company. They expect to sell her at Mazatlan.

Mr. Tjernandson said yesterday that it was planned to install an eighty-horse power engine in the craft and using both power and sails to make the voyage to Mexico via San Francisco. If this is done general cargo will be loaded for ports in the southern republic.

Formerly Private Yacht.
The Halcyon was built at the yards of Mathew Turner, at Benicia, Cal., in 1877, and was used for a time as the private yacht of John D. Speckles, whom made voyages up and down the California coast and to the Hawaiian Islands. After serving for a time as a pleasure craft the Halcyon was sold and became one of the most famous outlaw vessels that ever sailed the Pacific. She was used in the smuggling of opium worth $3,000,000 from the China coast to this country and by the voyage made a fortune for her owners. The drug was secretly landed in the Hawaiian Islands and afterwards shipped to San Francisco.

The Halcyon had towering masts and her large expanse of sail made her one of the fastest vessels of her type and rig afloat.

Had Exciting Experiences.
She had some exciting experiences with government craft, but usually escaped after being chased for a long distance by revenue cutters and customs launches. Her speed under full sail was about sixteen miles an hour, which enabled her to show her heels to Uncle Sam's vessels patrolling this coast.

But the pretty craft of graceful lines and clipper bow would not be able to log anything like sixteen miles now by the use of sails alone. Twenty feet of her masts were cut off when she was sealing the coasts. She entered out of Victoria for many years.

The Halcyon is now at Seattle where her engine will be installed.

STRONG SOUTHERLY BLOW DELAYS IXION

Blue Funnel Liner in From the Orient With Valuable Cargo; Many Chinese Arrive

Caught in a stiff gale off the west coast of Vancouver Island the day before yesterday, the Blue Funnel liner, Capt. Strout, was delayed and did not succeed in reaching William Head last evening in time to secure her pratique. She rode at anchor overnight and came up to the outer dock this morning at 8 o'clock. The big ship remained here until noon, discharging all her local cargo, an unusual procedure. She will not come here from the Sound after unloading there.

Capt. Strout says that a strong southerly gale beset the vessel on Thursday and that the sea was very heavy. The vessel had to be slowed down a little in order to weather the storm without damage. Outside of the one blow the Ixion had a very uneventful passage. She missed a typhoon in the China seas and had a little fog in the Pacific.

Brings Large Cargo.
The Ixion brought to this coast a cargo totalling 14,000 tons. Included in the manifest is a shipment of 2,300 bales of silk worth $1,200,000. The tea consignment is also very heavy and she has much porcelain, furniture, sugar, rice, miao, and general merchandise. The cargo for Victoria was very light, so in order to avoid another call on the port, the Ixion will discharge the Blue Funnel liner usually do, she discharged this morning.

Mrs. Arthur Ross, of Sydney, N. S. W., who are on a tour of the world, arrived on the Ixion, being the only first-class passengers. They went from Australia to Hongkong, toured the Orient and then embarked on the Blue Funnel liner. From here they are going to Winnipeg, Buffalo and New York, thence to London and return to Australia.

One hundred and sixty Chinese left the Ixion at this port and several hundred are going through to the Sound. A troupe of Chinese actors and actresses arrived to play at Chinese theatres on this coast.

'ERISCO'S MARINE NEWS.
San Francisco, Oct. 22.—With a wrecking crew and wrecking gear aboard, the steamer 'Erisco, in command of Capt. J. Kettison, sailed for Puget, tonight, last night to salvage the German steamer Walukera, a 2,500-ton vessel which was sunk in the harbor of the French port by German cruisers shortly after the war broke out. An effort will then be made to get her out and put her in off-shore trade. She was purchased by Sudduth & Christensen.

The Hind, Ralph & Co.'s steamer Walukera, steamed for Vancouver yesterday, where a part of her cargo will be discharged.

The Danish motorship Siam, which left this port October 20 for Norway and Denmark, had a cargo of nearly 9,000 tons, entirely of California products. It appears that the Danes and Norwegians have cultivated a taste for California produce. It is a master of speculation on the water front as to how many hardening houses they have over there that will call for fruit.

The principal part of the Siam's shipments was barley. The cargo is valued at $350,000.

The steamer Colon, arrived in port yesterday from Kakaeta, in the South Seas via Newcastle, Australia, after a rough voyage. The Colon brought 1,200 tons of phosphate.

The steamer Enterprise arrived yesterday from Hilo via San Pedro with 13,300 sacks of sugar.

MINNESOTA WILL HAVE 14,000 TONS OF GRAIN

Will Carry Greatest Cargo in History From Pacific to Atlantic; Needs Much Coal

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 23.—When the huge Great Northern steamer Minnesota sails next month on her last voyage out of Elliott bay, she will have a cargo aggregating 14,000 long tons of grain, canned salmon and lumber for Great Britain. This is less than the big steamship's regular cargo capacity, it being necessary to use much of the cargo space for coal on the round voyage. She will load enough fuel to take her to Corneil, Chile, where she will reload for the trip into the Atlantic via the Strait of Magellan.

Including coal and cargo, the steamship will be loaded to capacity when she departs from Seattle on her last voyage of the Atlantic trade.

The Minnesota was shifted to Hunter's Wharf, Seattle grain elevator last Tuesday by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., the firm furnishing the cargo. She is loading 7,000 long tons of grain at the Hunter's wharf, from West Seattle. She will shift next Tuesday to the Smith Cove grain elevator, where she will take on 5,000 long tons. The grain shipment totaling 12,000 long tons, will rank as the greatest ever carried from the coast into the Atlantic in a single vessel. The record probably will stand for many years.

After finishing at the Smith Cove elevator, the Minnesota will move to the Great Northern pier in Smith Cove to complete with the salmon and lumber shipments.

A great freight movement to the United Kingdom, continues to be handled by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., as agents for the Harrison Direct Line, the record cargo booked for the Minnesota merely serving to help out the British steamship City of Cornith, chartered by the Harrison company as an extra vessel to relieve the pressure of freight. Arrived Monday in Tacoma, where she was delivered. She came in ballast from Australia. After loading part cargo in Tacoma, the Cornith will shift to Seattle for additional shipments.

The Harrison Direct Line steamship Muscivora is now on her way to the Strait of Magellan from the Atlantic terminals of the Panama canal where she was turned back by the slides in the big ditch. On the voyage down the South American coast, she will call at Santos, Brazil, for a heavy shipment of coffee for Seattle and other North Pacific ports. The company's steamship Crown of Seville, which will sail from Glasgow next Monday, also will call at Santos for coffee on her way to Magellan.

Before the opening of the Panama canal Santos was a regular port of call for the westbound Harrison steamships and other freighters. The opening of the canal dimmed its glory so far as concerns the North Pacific trade, but the blocking of the inter-oceanic waterway is serving temporarily to restore its lost prestige.

PRESIDENT GOES SOUTH

GENERAL REDUCTION IN HOCKEY TICKETS ANNOUNCED FOR THE COMING SEASON

Victoria Fans Will Benefit by War Time Prices; Outlook
for Local Septette

Bringing major league hockey within reach of all, Lester Patrick, manager of the Victoria Hockey club, announced this morning that the prices for this year's games at the Arena have been cut 50 per cent. The fact that thousands of hockey enthusiasts have left the capital and the general depression make it imperative that steps be taken towards reducing the admission at the local Arena with the result that the following scale will be in vogue this winter:

Last Year	This Year
Box seats	$1.50
Reserved	1.00
General	.50

Not only is the local manager putting into force a general reduction in the scale of prices, but he is eliminating the rush seats this year at the north and south ends of the rink, the general admission ticket holders this year being given seats in what was the north end reserved section last year. "Mr. Patrick states that with the 'rush' seats blocked off, the Arena will have a seating capacity of 3,500, and it will also give the fans a much better chance of getting nearer the ice than in former years.

When the Victoria manager made up his mind again to operate his franchise in the Pacific Coast Hockey association this winter, he decided first of all to feel the pulse of the hockey fans. The largely signed petitions had the desired effect and Mr. Patrick is now taking steps to show Victorians that he appreciated their support in years gone by, by making a general reduction in the admission scale. This step is only made possible by the decision of the P. C. H. A. clubs to make a general cut in the salaries of the hockey stars, and it is expected that the new prices will greatly increase the hockey enthusiasm throughout the capital.

It will be impossible to give the lineup of the Victoria Hockey club this year until the management have had definite replies from all of last year's squad. It is certain, however, that Tommy Dunderdale, Bobby Rowe, Walter Small, Bert Lindsay and possibly Dubble Kerr will be let out. Ranny MacDonald, Bobby Genge and Lester Patrick are the only three certainties to date, though Skinner Poulin and George Morris are counted upon. Kerr is now dickering with the club and will probably come to terms, while Fred McCallough, the youthful Regina star, will likely be given a trial in the nets. Half a dozen youngsters will be brought to the coast, while a Coast league star may also be secured in a trade which is now pending.

FRAME-UP ALLEGED IN M'GOORTY-D'ARCY BATTLE WHICH WAS ENDED BY KNOCKOUT; AUTHORITIES MAY SOON PUT LID DOWN

The near future may see the Australian authorities put the lid down tight on boxing, if there is any foundation for the persistent rumors now current that the McGorty-D'Arcy scrap was framed. According to members of the crew of the R. M. S. Niagara, which arrived here from the Antipodes, the fight was the rawest kind of a frame-up, and the authorities are preparing to put the lid down on the game. It is alleged that McGorty was unable to make the request sought for the Australian and that he threw the fight. D'Arcy being credited with a fifteen-round knockout victory. A local prize fight enthusiast received details from a friend who was in Sydney and saw the fight, and he is said to have had knowledge that McGorty had agreed to throw the fight previous to the commencement of the battle. Australians are noted for their keen interest in sport, but will not permit frame-ups, and as soon as the authorities get wind of the McGorty-D'Arcy alleged frame-up will undoubtedly open an inquiry. "If the boxers are found guilty of such an affair, they will certainly have to wander to new battling grounds for their next fight," Jeff Smith commented. "A minor offense, but a fatal blow to D'Arcy, and following an inquiry, he will be barred from participating in further bouts in the Antipodes. It will only be necessary for boxers to indulge in a few such battles before the authorities will step in and administer a fatal blow. Australia is now the lone spot on the globe where the glove game flourishes popularly. The Australians love sport, but clean sport only. Thousands of persons attend the boxing bouts weekly at the huge Sydney stadium, but frame-ups will put a crimp in the attendance, and will eventually lead to the abolition of the game.

ROMAN RACING TO BE FEATURE OF COWBOYS' CONTEST

Victorians will have an opportunity of witnessing a real Roman race within the next two weeks, if the plans of local promoters for such an attraction are realized. Pre Nicholas, of the 8th Fusiliers, who surprised the crowd at the holiday gymnastics by his wonderful riding in an exhibition of Roman racing, has been challenged by Frank Hall, of Calgary, for a side bet. Nicholas has also received word from Janson, of Kamloops, and Williams, of Vancouver, and the proposition is now on to have all four meet in a race for the Canadian championship. Nicholas holds the honors for Mexico and North and South California, and he has also won a number of races in the East. Hall captured the title at the last Calgary stamper, while Janson was second in that event. Williams has been a prominent figure in the last few round-ups that have been held in the West. All four are wonderful riders, and a meeting of the quartette in a Roman standing race would be a real thriller.

Nicholas covered the half-mile in the holiday exhibition in 1:23. To hold his own with Hall, Williams and Janson, he will have to lower this mark to around 1:12, as the prairie riders can cover the distance in this time.

STARS TO MEET.

NOT TO COMPETE FOR MORE GOLF TITLES

Little Old Man of the Links Retires; Has Watched Growth of Game

It has been with a kind of fatherly pride that Walter J. Travis, the grand old man of golf, has watched the game in the United States and Canada grow until now the players are numbered by the thousands and the links are entirely too few to accommodate the demand. He has also seen the skill of golfers develop to the point where most of our courses are now too easy. The present popularity of the sport recalls the time in Scotland many years ago when it was a penal offence to play the game after certain hours because so many neglected work for the links. What is the reason for the present general interest in golf? According to Mr. Travis it is the late discovery by a great number of sport lovers that the game can be played by everyone, and that it has no superiors as a means of exercise.

Well Known to Fame.
Walter J. Travis has written his name large in American golf during the 19 years he has competed in the leading tournaments. With the single exception of Jerry Travis, no one captured more titles than this slightly-built veteran, who, at the age of 31, won the Metropolitan honor at Apawamis last month, his last big championship. Travis' record includes the National and Metropolitan titles and the British championship in 1904, the only time a Yankee ever carried away an English title. The veteran champion is also a deep student of the game, and no one is better qualified to explain why golf has developed so sensationally of late in this country.

"It is a fact that golf has made tremendous strides, especially in recent years," said Travis. "We were always a sport-loving people, but for a long time the game didn't appeal to us. Those who found baseball and tennis too strenuous were the first to golf. They found the sport could be played without excessive physical exertion, and their enthusiasm over the pastime induced others to follow their example. Many of the early golfers were men of middle age. I was 34 when I first competed in a tournament.

Game Grows Rapidly.
"Slowly the golf fever spread to the younger fellows, and the game soon worked out of the 'old man's' class. Then the sport grew very rapidly. The craze was nothing more than a knock-out to a sport that everybody could play and enjoy.

"A youth of ten can golf as well as the man of seventy. The youngster with a longing for action can play the game just as hard as he likes. It is a sport suited for women. Many are now capable players. The demand of new golfers has outstripped facilities, and it is now almost impossible to join any New York Club because of the already long waiting lists."

"Do you agree with Harry Vardon's contention that most American courses are too easy?" was asked.
"I do," was the positive answer.

How to Bunker Holes.
"With the proper arrangement of bunkers," declared the veteran, "courses may be laid out so that both the duffer and good golfer can play them. There should be an easy and difficult way of negotiating each hole, except, of course, the short ones. The first links were constructed with only a one-way entrance to greens. From time to time additional bunkers were installed. The average player with a little practice could get over them safely. The advent of the modern lively ball has also added the average golfer, until now most of the American courses are not very troublesome for him."

Travis Will Retire.
Mr. Travis intends making good his announced retirement from championships. "It would not be fair at my age," said the veteran, "to start fresh in a championship and possibly eliminate a good man, then weaken and allow perhaps someone else with not much chance of winning to remain in. No, I've had my day. I am willing to step aside for the younger element."

NEW TROPHY OFFERED.

New York, Oct. 23.—Sir Adam Beck, of London, Ontario, director of recruitments in the department of militia, has offered to donate to the National Show association a replica of the Canadian challenge cup for competition in the horse show this year.

The original cup, which was won by an officer of the first contingent, now serving in the war, has been lost, and the executive committee of the horse show association has applied to the French government for assistance in finding it.

DR. GRACE DEAD.

London, Oct. 23.—Dr. William Gilbert Grace, the famous cricketer, is dead. He was sixty-seven years old.

Dr. Grace played on English cricket teams against Australian cricketers for many years continuously. He also wrote on this sport, among his publications being "Cricketing Reminiscences and Personal Recollections."

WESTS STRENGTHEN FOR SOCCER TITLE

Jim Ord Signed Up; Gossip of
of the Old Country Clubs

Jack Youson is already taking steps to strengthen his Victoria West team and has signed on Jim Ord for his half back division. The Wests defeated the Fusiliers on Saturday, but they have a defeat credited to the Western Scots against them, and Youson realizes that if the green and whites are to be a factor in the V. F. A. race this season, he will have to get busy at once. Tommy Heyland played fifty soccer for the Wests on Saturday, the youngster proving a real find.

Thistles appear to have found a real outside left in Dave Munro, the veteran, who scored one of the goals for his club on Saturday. Munro had a lot of speed and his knowledge of the game will prove valuable to his team.

Art Lally is again to the fore with an all-star aggregation of North Ward juniors, and he thinks that he will be able to make some of the senior teams step before the season closes.

Capt. Stan Okell, of the Western Scots football eleven, thinks that his team will be a real contender. Absence of their regular goal tend cost them Saturday's game, but they will have Riley back in the net for future contests.

There is much controversy going on in the old country at present with regard to Anglo-Scots assisting clubs in their native land during the time the amateur rule prevails in England, and where no player is forced to play football during war conditions. Whilst recognized as amateurs they are to all intents and purposes registered professionals with English League clubs, and the Scottish Association, it is said, will insist on them being registered as professionals before they can play for Scottish clubs. The point then is this: Will the English League clubs agree to the transfer of their players, so that they may take part in professional League football in Scotland in face of the decision of the English Association that all their players must be regarded as amateurs? I am afraid they will not. Thus it will come about that the Anglo-Scots will either have to play for non-League clubs or be a spectator.

The Falkirk directors have appointed Alex Christie, late of Fulham, as their trainer, in succession to A. Brown, who joined the army some time ago. Christie, running as "A. Henderson, Edinburgh," won a handicap at Powderhall the other week.

In the casualty lists of Cheshire regiments many well known names of footballers appear. E. Pollard (Partington), E. Pollitt (Broadheath), have fallen at the Dardanelles, and G. Appleton and E. Gilberts, both well known Lynton footballers, have been killed in France.

Private Stanley Butcher, who was well known in the Grimsby district as a very active member of the football and cricket clubs, and also distinguished himself at athletics when at Liverpool University, has been killed in action at the recent fighting at the Dardanelles.

Within the last three years Blackburn Rovers received and refused an offer of £3,000 for one of its noted players, Crompton, and to-day he is loaned to Blackpool for nothing!

With Brittleton, Harrup and Bentley at their call, Sheffield Wednesday possesses what is probably the finest half-back line in Britain.

Abendonians—especially those who take an interest in the game—will be interested to know that Charlie Nunn, their old pivot, is at present on active service in France.

CLABBY BEATEN.

Sydney, N. S. W., Oct. 23.—Les D'Arcy, the Australian middleweight champion, today beat on points Jimmie Clabby, of Hammond, Ind., claimant of the world's middleweight championship, at the stadium here.

A Suggestion for Efficient Economy

Throughout the Empire has gone the call for personal economy to meet the extraordinary demands of the war. Here is a timely suggestion to men who have been spending from $25.00 to $75.00 a year on barber shop shaves:

Invest five dollars in a

and shave yourself at home.

The saving will not be limited to money—the time you'll gain will be even more important, for the morning shave with the Gillette need not take more than five minutes.

And the comfort rivals the economy. Though you never shaved yourself before, you'll have no trouble in getting a clean, cool, safe shave with the Gillette Safety Razor. No more waiting your turn in the chair—no more breaks in the morning's work—no more dependence on unknown barbers when travelling, for the Gillette works anywhere.

Truly, the man with a Gillette is an efficient economist. Get one yourself to-day. "Bulldog", "Aristocrat" or Standard Sets cost $5. Pocket Editions $5. to $6. Combination Sets $6.50 up. Your Hardware Dealer or Jeweler will show you an assortment.

INDIANS WEAKENED BY LEAGUE SALES

Bob Wicker Tossed Off Pennant by Disposing of Stars; Feds Again Active

Spokane attributes the loss of the Northwestern league pennant to the sales of players that the Indians have put through to Cincinnati. Manager Wicker was probably hard pressed financially when he allowed Ken Williams and Pat Callahan to go, but the fact remains that with this pair on the Spokane club, the Indians would have been so far ahead, that the other Northwestern league teams would not be able to catch them if winter baseball was played. Kaylor took Williams' place in the outfield, but Spokane missed Callahan's good pitching, while the whole Indian swirling staff took a bad slump.

Again there is talk of a proposition that was considered some time ago, but that was not practical then, for a consolidation of part of the circuit of the Canadian league, at present existent, with certain towns of the Southern Michigan league, now defunct, for a 1916 organization. Hamilton and London are two of the Canadian towns mentioned, and Saginaw and Bay City would be two of the Michigan members. Such a circuit would give the Michigan members practically every Sunday in the year at home. The Canadian has gone along gamely, though, like other minor leagues, it has been hard hit. It is claimed that as the circuit is now constituted, traveling expenses are pretty heavy, the jump to Ottawa, which seems to have organized a one-town pennant trust, being the one objected to mostly.

A dispatch from Milwaukee states that an agent of the St. Louis Feds spent several days here interviewing American association players and made offers to Larry Chappell, Bob Coleman, Jake Schenck, Frank Davis and others. All are believed to have turned down the offers. Davis particularly was deaf, for he already had been promised his trial in a real league with the White Sox.

The New York Giants have released Frank Carroll, the Fordham College recruit, to Toronto in part payment for Pitcher Herbert Carroll, an infielder.

It is announced from Buffalo that Harry Lord has been signed to a contract as manager of the Buffalo Federal team for 1916.

WELL-KNOWN MIDDLES HAVE BEEN MATCHED

Cyclone Scott and Russ Leighton Will Box Twelve Rounds Next Month

Announcement was made today that Pre. McHugh, popularly known as Cyclone Scott, of the Western Scots, and Seaman Russ Leighton, of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteers, and former instructor of the Commercial A. C., of Vancouver, will be the headliners of the boxing show to be staged at the Horse Show building at the Willows camp on November 2. The show will be put on under the direct auspices of the Western Scots, and the proceeds will be devoted to the regimental fund which is for the purpose of furnishing the soldiers with comforts and accessories within the camp which are not provided by the government. Only a limited number of invitation tickets will be issued by the officer commanding the regiment, and there will be no general admission to the public.

Recently Leighton and Scott engaged in a three-round exhibition bout at a Willows smoker, and there was so much activity that their fellow-soldiers and soldiers have been clamoring for a return match over a longer route. The November 2 contest will be a 12-round affair. Officers of the Western Scots will conduct the entire show, they will appoint a referee and other officials. Only this morning was the official announcement made, although negotiations for the contest have been going on for almost a week. Both boxers are working out in preparation for the event.

GERMANY AND THE STATES.

Germany is a proud nation, and she will not forget the bitter pill we are forcing her to swallow. She will remember the arms and ammunition that are being exported to her enemies, she will keep in mind the insistence with which we have pressed her for a settlement of the Lusitania and Arabic cases. Knowing this, it would be foolhardy to remit our preparations for national security. The danger will not be over when Berlin accommodates

EXERCISES HELD FOR GRADUATE NURSES

Jubilee Hospital Class Receives Certificates; Many Attend Proceedings

That the Royal Jubilee hospital, during its last financial year, cared for 1,553 in-patients and 96 out-patients, and that the expenditure of the institution amounted to approximately $67,700, was one of the statements made by William Blakemore, chairman of the house committee of the hospital, in the course of an interesting address which he made last evening at the graduating exercises of the nurses' training school. The first statement in itself is enough to account for the popularity of the members of the nursing profession, which was fully evidenced in the big audience present for the proceedings. These took place at the Alexandra club hall and were of great interest.

On the platform with Mr. Blakemore were Rev. Bishop Scriven, Sir Richard McBride, Hon. Dr. H. E. Young, Miss Mackenzie, lady superintendent of the hospital, Dr. H. Campbell and Rev. J. G. Inkster.

The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and palms, the former kindly left from the previous evening by the Navy league, and the latter lent by Brown Bros. Six of the eight graduating nurses, wearing their white aprons and uniforms, occupied front seats immediately beneath the platform, while behind them were seated in neat rows, and in their blue uniforms, 32 of the nurses still undergoing their training at the hospital. The graduates who were present in person to receive their diplomas were Miss Frances Paget, of Revelstoke; Miss Margaret Denham, of Victoria; Miss Nora von Follert, of Vancouver; Miss Adeline Sutton, and Miss Elaine Thompson, of Vancouver, and Miss Zeta Clarke, of Lytton. Miss Mary Mellen and Miss Joy Crawford, two graduate nurses of the 1915 class, are now in England nursing the wounded soldiers, and their diplomas were received by their friends and relatives when Sir Richard McBride, who presented the certificates, stated the reason of their absence.

The presentation of the diplomas was the last part of the business proceedings in connection with the graduating exercises. In addressing the graduates prior to presenting the diplomas, Sir Richard referred to the unusual dignity of the occasion in view of the enhanced responsibility of the nurses' office at the present time. He said that the nation was plunged in war, and all who were serving their country at the present time he thought none took a more prominent part than the nurse. It was only in recent times that the profession of nurse had come to be regarded with the respect which was its due. And those who had been in the medical profession for a number of years were able to appreciate the significance of good nursing, even better than the average layman.

While in London he had met several of the lady graduates of the Victoria hospital, and he was proud of having such fine representatives from British Columbia in that profession. In their work they had a true sense of the responsibility which rested on their shoulders, and they were all eager and keen for work.

The programme in connection with the presentation of the diplomas included a number of appropriate addresses. Rev. Dr. Campbell opened the proceedings with the invocation, after which the chairman, Mr. Blakemore, gave an interesting address on the work of the hospital. The expenditure of the hospital last year amounted to about $67,700, the income being about the same, and being made up of subscriptions, city grant of $12,000, a government grant of $18,000, and about $40,000 from other municipalities. The cost of medicine had been greatly increased owing to the war, and in nearly every instance there was an advance anywhere between 15 per cent and 100 per cent in the price. In fact the price of medicine to the hospitals was fifteen times as much as in previous years. Some medicines, in fact, were hardly to be obtained at any price, as Germany had the monopoly on the manufacture of many which had previously been on the market. He had heard complaints in connection with the expense for drugs in connection with the hospital, but they were absolutely necessary and this could not be helped.

The commencement address was delivered by the Bishop of Columbia, who spoke of the importance of the nursing profession in the present time. He said that the nursing profession was one of the most noble and most difficult of any, and that it was one of the most essential to the well-being of the community. ## TO LEARN AVIATION

JOE GORMAN

Sporting editor of the Times, who left this afternoon for Dayton, O., where he will take a course in aviation in preparation for active service with the Royal Flying Corps. Prior to his departure Joe was presented with a wrist watch by his colleagues, as a token of their esteem.

spoke to the nurses in a way which bespoke his own admiration for the woman who followed that profession. His lordship congratulated the graduates on having successfully terminated the three years' training which was the basis for the more responsible work which they were now to commence. He also congratulated them on the fact that they had completed their course at a time when the service which their profession could give was more appreciated than it had ever been before. He could recall, he said, that when he was young the nurse was regarded as a sort of necessary evil, an unhygienic person whom everyone was glad to see leave the house. To-day she was appreciated in the light of a messenger of mercy. In conclusion he wished them collectively and individually a successful career and a busy one.

Hon. Dr. H. E. Young also spoke to the graduates, referring to the sympathy which he as a medical man felt for that other side of a profession which has become so essential to the success of the one which he represented. They would have much still to learn in their free and more independent experience out in the world, but he knew they would recall their period of training with pleasure in the years to come. Dr. Young spoke with strong indignation of the execrable treatment by the Germans of Miss Edith Cavell, and referred to it as one of the outstanding horrors and most damnable crimes committed by the Hun. It was a thing which made every Britisher clench his teeth in rage and determination to call to justice the perpetrators of such a revolting act.

It was to Florence Nightingale that the nurse was indebted for the respect which she and her profession enjoyed to-day. And it was through her noble agency that the civilized nations had come to regard the calling of the Red Cross nurse as one of the most sacred and inviolate. That the Germans had set aside, profaned, and dishonored the tradition was the culmination to their cruel and ruthless behavior throughout the present war.

Rev. J. G. Inkster concluded the exercises with the benediction. Music was furnished by Mrs. R. Baird, whose delightful contralto admirably suited Francis Allisons' "Song of Thanksgiving." Miss Green accompanying at the piano; Miss Long gave a piano-forte number which was warmly appreciated, and Miss Margaret Tilly played the Chopin-Kreisler "Chanson de Louis XIII." in a very finished manner. The piano was very effectively lent by Gordon Hicks.

On the reception committee were Mrs. Basell, Mrs. Home, Mrs. R. S. Day, Miss MacKenzie, superintendent of the school; and the two lady directors, Mesdames Weiler and Rhodes.

After the "graduating exercises" the floor was cleared and dancing commenced. Heaton's orchestra supplied the music, and a good time was enjoyed until after midnight. Supper was served downstairs. Mrs. Melrose and Mrs. Brady making a very attractive display of clematis and chrysanthemums around the tables and mantel in the supper-room. Miss Mackenzie, the lady superintendent of the hospital, received many congratulations on having prepared the class of graduates.

FIVE ARE ARRESTED
 Two White Men Charged With Supplying Indians With Intoxicants.

Shortly after noon to-day License Inspector Hatcher and Constable Bishop arrested a bunch of Indians and a couple of white men on Yates street, the whites on charges of supplying liquor to the Indians, one of the latter for being in possession of the intoxicant and the other two for having partaken of it to such an extent that they were not capable of looking after themselves.

The white men are Andrew Clark and Charles Benson, the latter of whom has served terms for similar offences. The Indians are Mary Moses, who had the bottle and hid it when she caught sight of the officers, Martha Williams and Gus Morris.

The officers were on the lower part of the street and grew suspicious when they saw whites in company with the Indians. Watching they saw evidence to justify the arrests and the prisoners were taken to the station.

MINERS ARE ASKING

PAYMENT FOR DAMAGE

Deputation From Ladysmith Waits on Premier, Who Promises Consideration

A deputation of representatives of the miners at Ladysmith and Extension who two years ago suffered through the riots which occurred during the coal miners' strike, waited on the premier, Sir Richard McBride, at parliament buildings this morning in reference to the matter of compensation they ask from the government for the damage done to their property. The spokesman of the deputation was H. A. Maclean, K. C., who is engaged to look after their interests.

At the time of the strike riots there were a number of the old-timers who refused to leave the mines; some stayed, to look after the machinery, and in return their property was damaged by the strikers, and the families of many of them were driven into the woods for shelter from threatened violence. Loss and injury were occasioned in several ways, and it is recompense for this loss that is now sought.

Mr. Maclean informed the premier that the men represented by the deputation were not the strikers, only the sufferers, and they sought what they thought to be fair compensation. The claims which Mr. Maclean represents amount to about $25,000.

The premier replied to the deputation that he was impressed by the statement made by Mr. Maclean, and that he would take the matter under full consideration, and would endeavor to give an answer in three or four weeks.

SCHOOL CHILDREN

COLLECTED $557.15

Victoria Pupils Maintaining Beds at Duchess of Connaught's Hospital

Some time ago the scholars of Victoria were asked by the Red Cross committee to undertake to maintain ten beds at the Duchess of Connaught's hospital at Chloeden, England, at a cost of $25 per bed. A Red Cross meeting of all the school principals was called, and J. M. Campbell, was elected chairman, Miss Williams, treasurer, and H. Charlesworth secretary. It was decided to ask the children to subscribe all contributions to be in by Thanksgiving Day. The children's efforts exceeded all anticipations, and the magnificent total of $557.15 was reached. On the part of most scholars their subscriptions were the results of their own sacrifices, as they were particularly asked to contribute their own money.

At the Girls' Central school, two pupils—Muriel Black and Irene Black—each gave $25, while at the George Jay school, Margaret Taylor also handed in $25, these subscriptions entailing the girls to the honor of maintaining one hospital bed for one year.

In addition to this work many of the scholars have been and are still engaged in all phases of relief work for the Red Cross purposes. In the spring of the year the children contributed $450 to the Red Cross fund, making their total for the year $1017.15.

The following were the amounts collected at the various schools:
 Model school, $2.55; Beacon Hill, $12.50; James Road, $10.50; Girl's Central, $100; Boys' Central, $43.20; North Ward, $43.20; St. James Douglas, $20.50; South Park, $57.10; Fernwood, $20.40; Spring Ridge, $7.50; Kingston Street, $12.50; Oaklands, $19.00; Gaudin Street, $12.50; George Jay, $75; Borden Street, $14.25; Victoria West, $31; Burnside, $18.30; Margaret Jenkins, $5.50; High School, $32.27; Children's Aid, $8; Normal school, $12.50. ### STERLING DROPPED CENT AT NEW YORK

New York, Oct. 23.—In the face of the $500,000,000 credit established by the Anglo-French loan and of further private credits established or being negotiated for the account of British, French, Russian and Italian bankers, foreign exchange again is on the down side. To-day demand Sterling dropped a cent from yesterday's quotation to 44 1/2 and is now 15 points above the low point reached during the sensational decline of early September.

The weakness is attributed to the recent enormous exports of munitions of war, which have been responsible for a flood of bills on London and Paris within the last two weeks.

HE THINKS HE MAY FIND A CONTINENT

Stefansson Will Go Out Into Unknown Regions of Beaufort Sea

Ottawa, Oct. 23.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson believes that his newly-discovered land in Beaufort Sea, upon which he has planted the Union Jack in the name of the Dominion, is very extensive and will add many thousands of square miles to the territory of Canada. A detailed report of his explorations and discoveries during the past two years, one year of which he was given up for lost, has been received by overland mail from Herschel Island by the naval service department.

The new land which Stefansson discovered lies northwest of Prince Patrick Island. He spent three days on the land, and from what he gathered, he believes it runs some 300 miles east, but not far west. As far north as he could see were mountain ranges. There were also rivers and lakes, but none of them were very numerous and could be seen flying north in immense numbers, which led him to believe that the land ran north a great distance.

He had a comfortable time. He and his two men came through the rigors of the Arctic winter in first class shape and were heavier when they came out than when they went in. It was no trip for people who like bread and butter three times a day, but they had lots of seal oil, bean flesh, game and fish. They lived by their rifles.

Into Beaufort Sea

He will winter on Prince Patrick Island. He plans to explore the land he reached last winter and to strike out into the unknown regions of Beaufort Sea, hitherto unexplored by white men. He believes he may find even an unknown continent.

CHINESE THIEVES ARE SENT TO JAIL

One Apparently a Chicken Thief on Way to Steal Birds; Other Prowler About

A pair of Chinese thieves were sent to jail this morning, one in the city police court and the other in the Saanich court. The men looked so much alike that when the second was brought in court officials thought for a minute or two that it was the first one back again.

In the arrest of Chung Lai by Constable Devereux it seems certain that one at least of the chicken thieves who have been raiding the roosts for some time past is put out of the way for a while.

The constable was on beat near the Junction of Blanshard, Quadra and Colman streets at a quarter to three o'clock this morning when he saw the man prowling along in a suspicious manner, and he stopped him. Under his arm Chung had two sacks rolled up and he also carried a loop of rope such as peddlers, sling sacks across their shoulders or from poles by.

The Chinese was unresponsive as to what he was doing out at that time, and later in the morning he brought the constable to two places where he claimed he slept, but at both he was disowned by the Chinese living there. The evidence of detectives and other constables was that this man had been seen about a roost deal at and after midnight, and that from his actions it was practically certain that he is a chicken thief.

Magistrate Jay committed him to jail for two months at hard labor, on a vagrancy charge.

The smartness of two little lads is responsible for the arrest of Sing Kee, alias Lee Sing, on Inverness road, Saanich, yesterday afternoon by Constable James Owens, of the Saanich force. The man was seen coming from the basement of the residence of Mrs. Alice Foster on Glasgow avenue, by her boy and James Murray, and the latter suggested that they see what he had in the well filled sack he was carrying. The Foster lad found on top some wearing apparel that he recognized as having been in the basement, and he ran to ask his mother if she had sold these, being sure that she had not.

Mrs. Foster told the court that she had gone out and questioned the man, who had no answer but "no savvy," and made him put them back in the basement, which he did very reluctantly. He had a quantity of other clothing in the sack.

The Murray lad told of what he and his companion had observed, and of watching the Chinese while Mrs. Foster telephoned for the police. They saw him going into several basements of houses on Inverness road, before Constable Owens came along and arrested him.

John Nesbitt caught Chung in the act of appropriating a coat and vest of his that he had laid off while he was at work. This was after Sing had left Glasgow avenue.

Constable Owens discovered that Chung lives at the corner of Herald and Government streets, where there are half a dozen perfectly good suits pressed and cleaned, which obviously are not the property of the man who lives there.

Sing pleaded guilty to having taken the clothing, all of which was quite good and which would be very welcome to some deserving person, the use for which it was being kept, and he was sent to jail for two months. He said he thought they were old rags, which was manifestly absurd.

SEEKS UNIFORMITY IN CIVIC TAX ROLLS

Resolution on Subject is to Be Presented to Council; Other Business

As the result of a conflict in the technical description of property, Alderman McNeill has given notice of a motion, to be introduced at the meeting of the council on Monday, to move for a committee of three members of the city council together with the city solicitor to be appointed to formulate a system of description of real property, and names of owners so that uniformity shall exist in the assessor's, collector's, sewer and local improvement rolls, and so that the same shall conform to the legal description of such property as shown in the land registry office.

To the casual observer such a motion looks strange, but it appears that differences in detail between the assessor's office, the engineer's, and the city treasury have forced the city treasurer to appeal to the chairman of the finance committee for formal action to be taken. The situation arises from the problems presented by the recent tax sale, when discrepancies in description have led to complaint to the treasurer. It is claimed by some officials that the city lists vary for these in the land registry office, while others take the opposite view and declare that the assessment roll, which is the fundamental basis of all other rolls, is prepared strictly according to registered titles. At any rate the committee will be able to clear up the ambiguities existing.

A number of other matters will come before the council at its meeting. Among the subjects under review will be the proposed amendment of the broad regulations. The motion of Alderman Todd will be moved for the purpose of obtaining a full report on the Johnson street bridge negotiations up to November 30, for presentation at the second meeting, in December.

The Saanich council will have a letter in with regard to charges for supplies alleged to have been obtained from the city, admitting some charges, and claiming exchange of equipment as balancing off others. The Oak Bay council writes with regard to the water agreement, which is to become effective next January. An arrangement has already been reached, but the desire is to have it embodied in a formal agreement.

The city treasurer states that nearly all the tax notices have now been issued, and in a few days now the remainder will have been issued to interested owners.

The assessor's office will be kept open each evening next week from 7 o'clock to 9 o'clock to receive the registration of householders and license holders, a J. P. Boring presents to receive declarations. The tax collector will attend to issue receipts to householders who have not already paid their road tax.

BULGARIA AND GRATITUDE.

In recalling Bismarck's dictum about the Balkans that "small states have no gratitude," M. Gabriel Hanotaux asks in the Figaro whether this is really so in the case of hesitating Bulgaria. "When the Bulgarians were in extremity," he remarks, "when the Turks overwhelmed them, who rose for them? Russia. And how many times? As many as it was necessary to push back Turkey and deliver Bulgaria. And now why did Russia enter into the fighting line? Why? Because she followed the dictates of her heart in trying to the help of the menaced Slavs and Christians. Russia has always been loyal."

LUMBER BY RAIL TO EASTERN SEABOARD

Commissioner Cuthbert Arranges Freight Rate With C. P. R. to Help Local Industry

As a consequence of the shortage of water tonnage from British Columbia and the consequent piling up of manufactured lumber ready to fill orders, Herbert Cuthbert, commissioner of the Victoria & Island Development association, said this morning that he had been successfully working "with the Canadian Pacific railway for the purpose of trying to arrange a freight rate across Canada that would help out the lumber shippers. He said a rate had been obtained less than the rate quoted by sea, and by this means the lumber could be moved to the east coast, and from there probably arrangements could be made to get ships to carry it to Great Britain.

Large orders had been received here, but when the lumber was ready there were no ships to carry it, and merchants were at a loss what to do. After this deadlock occurred, Mr. Cuthbert thought something might be done with the railway company, and saw some of the officials, with good results. It will be necessary now for arrangements to be made to get the lumber moved after arrival at the eastern seaboard, and the commissioner thinks this might be taken up by the shippers with the authorities at that end, or the British authorities, who may send ships to freight it across the Atlantic.

As a result of the new arrangements some 25,000 feet of lumber from one of the local mills are being moved.

BULGARIAN REASONING.

Under German inspiration, Bulgaria reasons that Russia, having failed to land an army on the Black Sea coast of Turkey to threaten Constantinople while the British and French were operating against the Dardanelles, is at this time no better prepared to land an army on the Black Sea coast of Bulgaria. She is assured that Italy is too much occupied in the Trentino and on the road to Trieste to take part in a Balkan campaign that England and France require all of their available forces in the west or on the Gallipoli peninsula, that Greece can be held in check by less than half of the Bulgarian army, while the rest can be employed in raiding Serbia on the flanks and rear coincidentally with an Austro-German attack upon the Serbian front. And along with this calculation goes the conviction that Roumania will either remain neutral or side with Bulgaria under increasing German pressure at Bucharest—Brooklyn Eagle.

BRITAIN'S "GOLDEN BULLETS."

One of the features of Chancellor McKenna's budget was the announcement that advances to the overseas dominions and to allies amounted to $2,250,000,000. Of the advances to dominions, Canada has received $100,000,000 and Australia about as much. Almost an entire two thousand millions has gone to aid—Britain's European allies. One of the latest transactions of the kind is the discounting in London of $100,000,000 of Russian treasury bills. Italy, Serbia, Greece, Belgium and other small allies are being accommodated from Threadneedle street. By the time the war is ended every one of her allies will be heavily in debt to Britain, and this condition will go far to prevent any diminution in London's importance as the world's money centre. The war is likely to be over before Britain feels a strain approaching in severity that to which she was reduced in financing the Napoleonic wars.—Toronto Mail and Empire.

Time was when some merchants vied with each other in extravagance of statement in their ads. The wise merchants of today vie with each other in the ACCURACY of their statements about goods and values. Nowadays deliberate misrepresentation in advertising would surely and quickly kill any store indulging in it.
